A UNIQUE PUBLICATION

from the MODERN LANGUAGE ASSOCIATION

Service Learning and Literary Studies in English

Edited by Laurie Grobman and Roberta Rosenberg

.....
"This is a groundbreaking anthology of new research and practice in the engaged humanities. Readers will find a rich intellectual debate on strategies for growing the public humanities and for renewing the contribution of literary studies to higher education's mission to strengthen democracy and imbue students with a thoughtful commitment to civic engagement."

—Gregory Jay
University of Wisconsin, Milwaukee
.....

Service learning can help students develop a sense of civic responsibility while addressing pressing community needs. Student collaboration with community partners brings social awareness to the study of literary texts and helps students and teachers engage literature in new ways.

Light in the Dark/Luz en lo Oscuro

Rewriting Identity,
Spirituality, Reality

GLORIA E. ANZALDÚA

Post-Contemporary Interventions
10 illustrations, paper, $23.95

"Gloria E. Anzaldúa is one of the most generative and generous thinkers and storytellers in our times.... It is such a pleasure to see this book at last; it makes her legacy vivid when it is most needed."—Donna Haraway

Dark Matters

On the Surveillance of Blackness

SIMONE BROWNE

20 illustrations, paper, $23.95

"Browne's incisive, wide-ranging, and multidisciplinary meditation shows us the scale and persistence of surveillance culture, and especially its urgent stakes for communities of color. Her deft history of the present moment reveals how data becomes us."—Alondra Nelson

The Repeating Body

Slavery's Visual Resonance in the Contemporary

KIMBERLY JUANITA BROWN

29 illustrations, paper, $24.95

"This is a must-read for anyone interested in how the visual, the literary, the corporeal, and the enslaved come together."—Roderick A. Ferguson

Territories of the Soul

Queered Belonging in the Black Diaspora

NADIA ELLIS

"In gorgeous prose, she skillfully employs the insights of queer and affect studies to produce original readings of belonging and migration in Black Atlantic literature, music, and art. This is a timely and needed intervention."—Tavia Nyong'o
