Teaching Human Rights in Literary and Cultural Studies

Edited by Alexandra Schultheis Moore and Elizabeth Swanson Goldberg

“The time for human rights and literature has clearly come. [...] The collection will help to expand thinking—and questions—about these interdisciplinary studies.”

—Domna Stanton,
Graduate Center,
City University of New York

Teaching Human Rights in Literary and Cultural Studies is a sourcebook of inventive approaches and best practices for teachers looking to make human rights the focus of their undergraduate and graduate courses.
