Without question World Policy Journal is in a class by itself.
—Victor Navasky, The Nation

The real intellectual competition to Foreign Affairs.
—Columbia Journalism Review

For over thirty years World Policy Journal has been home to both distinguished and emerging thinkers from around the globe. Its articles inject new ideas into international debates on the world’s most pressing issues. The journal is also known for lively, intelligent writing that challenges conventional wisdom with fresh perspectives on underreported issues.

Since its establishment in 1945, Archives of Asian Art has been devoted to publishing new scholarship on the art and architecture of South, Southeast, Central, and East Asia. Articles discuss premodern and contemporary visual arts, archaeology, architecture, and the history of collecting. Every issue is fully illustrated, with color plates in the online version, and each fall issue includes an illustrated compendium of recent acquisitions of Asian art by leading museums and collections.

Archives of Asian Art is a publication of Asia Society.
