Gilbert Simondon and the Philosophy of the Transindividual

Muriel Combes
translated with preface and afterword by Thomas LaMarre

"Muriel Combes combines a rare talent for theoretical clarification with a sharp sense for social relevance. Her lucid presentation of key concepts such as 'individuation,' 'dephasing,' and 'transduction' goes well beyond an introduction to Simondon’s philosophy. Combes constructs an innovative form of multiplied materialism."

— Henning Schmidgen, Max Planck Institute for the History of Science

Technologies of Lived Abstraction series • 168 pp., $27 cloth

The MIT Press mitpress.mit.edu
Providing a much-needed forum for interdisciplinary discussion, GLQ publishes scholarship, criticism, and commentary in areas as diverse as law, science studies, religion, political science, and literary studies. Its aim is to offer queer perspectives on all issues touching on sex and sexuality.

Recent Special Issues
“Black/Queer/Diaspora” (18:2/3)
Jafari S. Allen, special issue editor

“Queer Studies and the Crisis of Capitalism” (18:1)
Jordana Rosenberg and Amy Villarejo, special issue editors

“Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick” (17:4)
Ann Cvetkovich and Annamarie Jagose, special issue editors

Subscription Information
Published quarterly.
RSS feeds and online access are available with a print subscription.

Individuals: $38
Students: $24 (copy of valid student ID required)

dukeupress.edu/glq differences explores the problematic of differences in texts ranging from the literary and the visual to the political and the social.

The journal highlights theoretical debates across the disciplines that address the ways concepts and categories of difference—notably but not exclusively gender—operate within culture.

Subscriptions

Individuals: $35
Students: $20 (photocopy of valid student ID required)

To order, please visit dukeupress.edu/differences.