

Looking for new ideas for teaching twenty-first-century literature?

Approaches to Teaching Fun Home

Edited by Judith Kegan Gardiner
Afterword by Alison Bechdel

"A valuable, thoughtful, and broadly engaged set of essays that will inform the teaching of Fun Home across a number of levels: late high school, undergraduate, and graduate."

—Jane Tolmie
Queen's University

Alison Bechdel's Fun Home: A Family Tragicomic has quickly joined the ranks of celebrated literary graphic novels. Set in part at a family-run funeral home, the book explores Alison's complicated relationship with her father, a closeted gay man. Amid the tensions of her home life, Alison discovers her own lesbian sexuality and her talent for drawing.

Meridians

feminism, race, transnationalism

Now published by Duke University Press

Meridians, an interdisciplinary feminist journal, provides a forum for the finest scholarship and creative work by and about women of color in U.S. and international contexts. The journal engages the complexity of debates around feminism, race, and transnationalism in a dialogue across ethnic, national boundaries, and disciplinary boundaries. Meridians publishes work that makes scholarship, poetry, fiction, and memoir by and about women of color central to history, economics, politics, geography, class, sexuality, and culture. The journal provokes the critical interrogation of the terms used to shape activist agendas, theoretical paradigms, and political coalitions.
