d i f f e r e n c e s : A Journal of Feminist Cultural Studies is published three times a year (May, September, and December) by Duke University Press and is affiliated with the Pembroke Center for Teaching and Research on Women, a nonprofit educational organization, at Brown University. The journal brings together cultural studies and feminism and aims to provide a forum for an examination of cultural politics and discursive practices informed by feminist criticism.

Submissions: Please submit manuscripts, along with a brief description of the essay, either as a Word attachment to differences@brown.edu or in hard copy to d i f f e r e n c e s, Box 1958, Brown University, Providence, RI 02912. Published articles follow the guidelines of the MLA Handbook, 6th ed. (2003).
