d i f f e r e n c e s : A Journal of Feminist Cultural Studies is published three times a year (May, September, and December) by Duke University Press and is affiliated with the Pembroke Center for Teaching and Research on Women, a nonprofit educational organization, at Brown University. The journal brings together cultural studies and feminism and aims to provide a forum for an examination of cultural politics and discursive practices informed by feminist criticism.

Submissions: Please send your essay as an attachment, along with a brief description and cover letter, to differences@brown.edu. Published articles follow the guidelines of the MLA Style Manual and Guide to Scholarly Publishing, 3rd ed.
