EAST ASIAN SCIENCE, TECHNOLOGY AND SOCIETY
AN INTERNATIONAL JOURNAL

_East Asian Science, Technology and Society (EASTS)_ is an interdisciplinary, quarterly journal based in Taiwan and coedited by editorial boards in Japan, South Korea, and the West. _EASTS_ aims to provide an international platform for STS scholars around the world to share ideas, knowledge, and research results. _EASTS_ promotes STS studies from and to the East Asian and worldwide STS communities. The journal’s issues contain research and commentary on how society and culture, and the dynamics of science, technology, and medicine, are mutually shaped and coproduced. The journal publishes studies from the field of science, technology, and society (STS) and the field of science and technology studies (S&TS). It includes research articles, research notes, critical reviews, and book reviews.

Cover Image: This cover is based on a cover photo of Wuxiandian zazhi (Radio Magazine) published in 1974. It shows the interior of a radio propaganda station during the Mao era. According to Chuan Xu’s analysis (page 391), the open-reel tape recorder (bottom-left corner) was the most important actant that ensured the functioning of the station because it “preserved the fidelity of radio sounds so that people across the country could hear the same message crafted by propaganda officials.”
