Eighteenth-Century Life

Published Triannually
by Duke University Press
in Collaboration with the University of Wyoming

39:3 September 2015
Cover and title page: Vignette by G. Neagle, from Fables by John Gay (1793)
Contents

Thomas Rowlandson’s Vauxhall Gardens:
The Lives of a Print
 Temma Berg  1

The Embarrassments of Restoration Panegyric:
Reconsidering an Unfashionable Genre
 Noelle Dückmann Gallagher  33

Review Essays

One Step Forward, Two Steps Back
 Jacob Sider Jost  55

Digital Humanities and the History of Literary Studies
 Michael Gavin  59

The Epistolary Canon of the “Man of Mercury”
 Ashley Marshall  65

The Sublime Redivivus
 Jonathan Lamb  76

How Did We Miss This?
A New Take on the Enlightenment in Practice
 Ronald Schechter  80

One Popular Playwright, One Private Man
 Linda Bree  83

Radical Moderates
 Ross Carroll  87
Chardin: “Sage Rival of Nature”
Catherine Levesque 92

The World According to an Eighteenth-Century Barber
James Grehan 97

Boss: The First of Hanoverian Scotland’s
Three Great Satraps—the Earl of Ilay
Bruce P. Lenman 101

Old New Media:
Print, Paint, and the Early Eighteenth-Century Media Revolution
Rachael Scarborough King 109

Georgian Britain:
Modernity and the Middle Classes
Paul Stock 114

The Ehrenpreis Dilemma and the Lives of Swift
Daniel Cook 118

Johnson’s Play Box
James Horowitz 123