The Society for French Historical Studies holds an annual conference on French history; awards (solely or jointly) the David H. Pinkney Prize, the William Koren Jr. Prize, the Gilbert Chinard Prize, the Research Travel Award, the Natalie Zemon Davis Graduate Student Award, and the Marjorie M. and Lancelot L. Farrar Memorial Awards; and sponsors French Historical Studies.

For annual membership rates, see www.dukeupress.edu/societies/french-historical-studies. Lifetime memberships are $700 for US residents, $800 for members outside the US. All active SFHS members receive a subscription to French Historical Studies. For more information, call Duke University Press at 888-651-0122 (toll-free in the US and Canada) or at 919-688-5134.

To submit an article, please visit www.editorialmanager.com/fhs. If this is your first time using Editorial Manager, you will need to register. Submit your manuscript, following the instructions on the site. Articles may be submitted in English or French and should be typed doublespaced, including notes, block quotes, and tables. To ensure anonymity, the author’s name should not appear on the title page or in the body of the manuscript. Please follow The Chicago Manual of Style, seventeenth edition, and the journal’s style guide. Manuscripts should not exceed 10,000 words in length (excluding notes). All other editorial correspondence should be sent to the editors, Kathryn A. Edwards and Carol E. Harrison, at fhs@sc.edu.
