

French Historical Studies

Volume 45 • Number 2 • April 2022

Music and French History

JONATHYNE BRIGGS and WILLIAM WEBER, Special Issue Editors

Introduction

- 187 La Langue Universelle? French Music and Its Rhythms of Cultural Engagement

JONATHYNE BRIGGS and WILLIAM WEBER

Articles

- 195 The Sounds of Siam: Sonic Environments of Seventeenth-Century Franco-Siamese Diplomacy

DOWNING A. THOMAS

- 219 “It Is No Longer in Fashion—More’s the Pity”: Reconsidering the Obsolescence of the Eighteenth-Century Vaudeville

JENNA HARMON

- 245 Mobilizing Historicity and Local Color in Fernand Cortez (1809): Narratives of Empire at the Opéra

ANNELIES ANDRIES

- 287 Napoleonic Commemoration on the Operatic Stage: The Retour des Cendres and Halévy’s La Reine de Chypre

DIANA R. HALLMAN

- 319 “Zouk Is the Only Medicine We Need”: Kassav and the Cultural Politics of Music in the French Caribbean

PAUL COHEN

News and Publications

- 354 News

- 356 Recent Books and Dissertations on French History

Compiled by SARAH SUSSMAN

- 378 Translated Abstracts