CONTENTs
Volume XL, Numbers 3 & 4—Fall/Winter 2007

Guest Edited by R. Clifton Spargo and Alan Velie

Revelation and Idolatry: Holy Law and Holy Terror
Regina M. Schwartz

The Economy of Blessing in the Book of Genesis
R. Clifton Spargo

The Ambivalent Deuteronomist: History, Law, and Temporality
Kevin Dunn

“As One Man”: National Unity and the Violences of Judges 19-21
Leslie Brisman

A Tale of Two Tamars: Internecine and Inter-Ethnic Violation, Genetic and Genealogical Anxiety, in the Old Testament Narrative
James Norhnberg

The Curse-Psalms in Their Patristic, Renaissance, and Modern Reception
Carol Kaske
Biblical Tricksters: David and Paul
Alan R. Velie 143

From Proverbs of Ashes to Coals on the Tongue:
The Scriptural Dynamics of Luke
Edward T. Duffy 171

Review of Alain Badiou, St. Paul: The Foundation of Universalism and Giorgio Agamben, The Time That Remains: A Commentary on the Letter to the Romans
Timothy S. Murphy 201