Submissions. Submit essays to glq@ucdavis.edu as an electronic attachment in Microsoft Word. All e-mails should be addressed to Managing Editor, GLQ. Please do not submit previously published articles without the permission of the editors. Please do not simultaneously offer your article to another publication. All lines should be double-spaced (including lines in the notes), with 1.5-inch left and right margins. Articles should not exceed 12,000 words. To maintain anonymity in the review process, please put names, affiliations, and mailing addresses on a separate title page. Citations to an author’s own works should be made in a way that does not compromise anonymity.

Style. GLQ uses The Chicago Manual of Style, 16th edition, as its main reference. The journal uses endnotes (without a bibliography) for documentation. The first citation to a work is a full citation; subsequent citations are shortened (i.e., last name, short title, page number). Follow Chicago, chapter 14, for the form of all citations.

Reviews. GLQ does not accept unsolicited book or film/video reviews. Reviews are edited in cooperation with the GL/Q Caucus for the Modern Languages, an affiliate organization of the MLA. Inquiries, proposals, and works for review may be sent to the appropriate review editor: Social Sciences Book Review Editor: Martin F. Manalansan IV, Associate Professor, Anthropology, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, 607 S. Mathews, Urbana, IL 61801; e-mail: manalans@uiuc.edu.
