TWO NOTEWORTHY BOOKS.
NEW FROM HARRINGTON PARK PRESS.

STORMTROOPER FAMILIES
Homosexuality and Community in the Early Nazi Movement
Andrew Wackerfuss

"Detailed, well informed, and highly readable—an important and most welcome contribution to the still relatively small number of SA histories, and Wackerfuss has undertaken a huge amount of research into local primary sources."
— Daniel Siemens, University College London

"A fascinating picture of the private lives of the SA, both as individuals and in their close-knit groups...shines a light on individual units, which were by no means a united front but sometimes fraught with infighting."
— Geoffrey Gies, Professor Emeritus, University of Florida

408 pages – August 2015
hardcover $90 ISBN: 978-1-939594-04-4
paperback $35 ISBN: 978-1-939594-05-1

LESBIAN DECADENCE
Representations in Art and Literature of Fin-de-Siècle France
Nicole G. Albert
Translated by Nancy Erber and William A. Peniston

"An authoritative study that reveals how Sapphists were associated with the first expressions of a feminism that threw the popular imagination off balance and produced such inextricable fantasies."
— Marc Emile Baronhild, Elle Belgique

"A marvel of elegance and erudition..."
— S. M., Revue Inversion

380 pages – December 2015
25 b&w illustrations and 14 color illustrations
hardcover $85.00 ISBN: 978-1-939594-07-5

What Makes a Man?
Sex Talk in Beirut and Berlin
BY RASHID AL-DAIF
TRANSLATED BY PAULA HAY DAR AND NADINE SINNO
This “novelized biography” by Lebanese novelist Rashid al-Daif and pointed riposte by German novelist Joachim Helfer demonstrate how attitudes toward sex and masculinity across cultural contexts are intertwined with the work of fiction, thereby highlighting the importance of fantasy in understanding the Other.
$19.95 paperback | $19.95 e-book

Queer Beirut
BY SOFIAN MERABET
Queer Beirut paves the way for a timely anthropological conversation about gender and queer identities in both Middle Eastern studies and urban studies.
$55.00 hardcover | $55.00 e-book

Pillar of Salt
An Autobiography, with 19 Erotic Sonnets
BY SALVADOR NOVO
Written with exquisite sensitivity and wit, this memoir by one of Mexico’s foremost men of letters describes coming of age during the violence of the Mexican Revolution and “living dangerously” as an openly homosexual man in a brutally machista society.
