NEW FROM UNC PRESS

WELCOME TO FAIRYLAND
Queer Miami before 1940
Julio Capó Jr.
“Eloquently written, exquisitely analyzed, and impeccably researched, this is one of the best works of scholarship I have read in a long time. Capó gives voice to whole communities of people whose lived experiences have largely been rendered invisible. The result is a work of national significance.”
—Melanie Shell-Weiss, Grand Valley State University
400 pages $29.95 paper

GAY ON GOD’S CAMPUS
Mobilizing for LGBT Equality at Christian Colleges and Universities
Jonathan S. Coley
“A thoroughly researched rebuttal to the false-dichotomy portrayal of Christian groups as universally situated in opposition to LGBT culture. Coley’s emphasis on the intersection of religious identity and LGBT activism fills an important niche in the field of social movements.”
—Tina Eftner, McMaster University
208 pages $27.95 paper

BAD GIRLS
Young Women, Sex, and Rebellion before the Sixties
Amanda H. Littauer
“Littauer challenges the image of the sexually repressed 1950s, narrating the volatile stories of young women who found their voices and defied conventional morality. A much-needed and compelling exploration of the sexualized rebellion that catalyzed change in the years before the highly touted ‘sexual revolution’ of the 1960s.”
—Elizabeth Fraterrigo, Loyola University Chicago
280 pages $27.95 paper

NOT STRAIGHT, NOT WHITE
Black Gay Men from the March on Washington to the AIDS Crisis
Kevin Mumford
“A landmark book that adds a different voice, approach, and substance to the field of black queer studies. A joy to read, this astonishing and refreshing book is sure to be read closely, lauded, and debated.”
—Marlon Ross, University of Virginia
272 pages $32.95

ARCHIVES OF DESIRE
The Queer Historical Work of New England Regionalism
J. Samaine Lockwood
“Lockwood offers a nuanced analysis of New England’s ties to the nation and its queer past. The women at the heart of this book were revolutionary, intriguing, sexual, and often radical. This book chronicles their legacies of dissent.”
—Marjorie Pryse, University at Albany, State University of New York
238 pages $27.95 paper

REFORMING SODOM
Protestants and the Rise of Gay Rights
Heather R. White
“Brings together two historical subjects—religion and gay/lesbian activism—that are often seen as not intersecting. White makes notable new arguments about the collaboration between religion and medicine in the post-World War II generation and the ways religious organizing and activism intersected so thoroughly with the expanding gay liberation movement of the 1970s.”
—John D’Emilio, University of Illinois at Chicago
260 pages $29.95 paper
