EVERY TRUE PLEASURE
LGBTQ Tales of North Carolina
Edited by Wilton Barnhardt
“If these writers weren’t connected by the natural fact of being members of, or sympathetic to, the LGBTQ community, they would be connected by their keenness of feeling and observation. What this book says is, ‘We are all kinds of people with all kinds of stories. In other words, we’re just like you.’”
—Mark Childress, author of Crazy in Alabama and Georgia Bottoms

SEMI QUEER
Inside the World of Gay, Trans, and Black Truck Drivers
Anne Balay
“A powerfully compelling ethnography of trans, gay, and black truck drivers and the complex world they inhabit. Balay paints a vivid picture of the everyday lives of working-class queer and black people, highlighting their astute analyses of their own lives. A must-read indeed!”
—Marlon M. Bailey, author of Butch Queens Up in Pumps
232 pages $27.95

WELCOME TO FAIRYLAND
Queer Miami before 1940
Julio Capó Jr.
“Eloquently written, exquisitely analyzed, and impeccably researched, this is one of the best works of scholarship I have read in a long time. Capó gives voice to whole communities of people whose lived experiences have largely been rendered invisible. The result is a work of national significance.”
—Melanie Shell-Weis, Grand Valley State University
400 pages $29.95 paper

BLACK, QUEER, SOUTHERN, WOMEN.
An Oral History
E. Patrick Johnson
“A courageous and eminently readable book that will be celebrated and cherished by a generation of readers inside and outside the academy.”
—Nan Alamilla Boyd, San Francisco State University
600 pages $39.95 paper

THE LESBIAN SOUTH
Southern Feminists, the Women in Print Movement, and the Queer Literary Canon
Jaime Harker
“Harker uncovers the complex networks of affiliation, sometimes antagonistic and sometimes loving, that shaped southern lesbian feminism, and the rich literary archive that women in these networks produced. A must-have for any reader.”
—Michael Bibler, Louisiana State University
264 pages $27.95 paper

The first introductory textbook for transgender/trans studies at the undergraduate level

This is the first introductory textbook intended for courses in transgender/trans studies at the undergraduate level. It can easily be used in LGBTQ, queer, and gender/feminist studies.

Written by an accomplished teacher with experience in a wide variety of higher learning institutions, it explores not only contemporary transgender issues and experiences but also the history of gender diversity around the world.

It encompasses and connects global contexts, intersecting identities, historic and contemporary issues, literature, politics, art, and culture.

Ardel Haefele-Thomas embraces the richness of intersecting identities—how race, ethnicity, sexual orientation, class, nation, religion, and ability have cross-influenced to shape the transgender experience and trans culture across and beyond the binary.

INTRODUCTION TO TRANSGENDER STUDIES

differences explores the problematic of differences in texts ranging from the literary and the visual to the political and the social. The journal highlights theoretical debates across the disciplines that address the ways concepts and categories of difference—notably but not exclusively gender—operate within culture.
