West Side Story as Cinema
The Making and Impact of an American Masterpiece
Ernesto R. Acevedo-Muñoz

The film adaptation of West Side Story combined music, dance, dialogue, and visual elements—especially color—in highly creative ways, while also addressing the social, racial, and class tensions of American society. Drawing on his own Puerto Rican heritage, Ernesto R. Acevedo-Muñoz provides a Hispanic perspective on the cultural aspects of the story and explores the ways in which the film's portrayal of Puerto Rican identity is neither as transparent nor as negative as some critics have charged.

“This is the definitive and most comprehensive book about the film version of West Side Story. It is filled with fascinating information and thought-provoking commentary, including a Hispanic sensibility that looks at the movie with a fresh point of view. An outstanding work of movie scholarship.”—Thomas Hischak, author of The Oxford Companion to the American Musical

“Well written and meticulously researched. Acevedo-Muñoz demonstrates not only why the film's complex mix of music, dance, gender, and race has been so ardently embraced by legions of fans for the past fifty years, but also why West Side Story will continue to influence media culture well into the future.”—Jeff Smith, author of The Sounds of Commerce: Marketing Popular Film Music

THE STRUCTURE OF CUBAN HISTORY
Meanings and Purpose of the Past
Louis A. Pérez Jr.
“A masterpiece and deserves to be read, not just by those working in the field of Cuban studies, but more widely, by those working on manifestations of post-colonial nationalism that have emerged anywhere in the world, and also by students of ideology.”
—Antoni Kapcia,
University of Nottingham

EATING PUERTO RICO
A History of Food, Culture, and Identity
Cruz Miguel Ortiz Cuadra
Translated by Russ Davidson
“A magnificent book. Ortiz provides a fascinating anthropological, historical, and sociological study of Puerto Rican culture articulated through the foods consumed historically on the island. But the book is about much more than that. It is a history of the deep culture of Puerto Ricans since the Spanish conquest, addressing race, ethnicity, and class.”
—César J. Ayala, coauthor of Puerto Rico in the American Century
400 pages $45.00

THE FORMATION OF CANDOMBLÉ
Vodun History and Ritual in Brazil
Luis Nicolau Parés
Translated by Richard Vernon in collaboration with the author
“With scholarly rigor, a historically-grounded Africanist perspective, extensive research, and methodological sophistication, Pares’s pathbreaking book is cultural history at its best.”
—João José Reis, author of
Slave Rebellion in Brazil
464 pages $85.00 cloth / $37.50 paper

PROSTITUTION, MODERNITY, AND THE MAKING OF THE CUBAN REPUBLIC, 1840-1920
Tiffany A. Sippial
“An extremely well-researched, insightful, and enormously interesting book . . . an excellent examination of the various competing voices articulating the evolving concept of the Cuban nation.”
—Franklin W. Knight,
The Johns Hopkins University
256 pages $69.95 cloth / $29.95 paper

LATINOS AT THE GOLDEN GATE

Strange Lands and Different Peoples

Spaniards and Indians in Colonial Guatemala

By W. George Lovell and Christopher H. Lutz
With Wendy Kramer and William R. Swezey

$45.00 Hardcover · 288 Pages

Guatemala emerged from the clash between Spanish invaders and Maya cultures that began five centuries ago. The conquest of these “rich and strange lands,” as Hernán Cortés called them, and their “many different peoples” was brutal and prolonged. “Strange Lands and Different Peoples” examines the myriad ramifications of Spanish intrusion, especially Maya resistance to it and the changes that took place in native life because of it.

NEW FROM LIBERTY FUND

Liberal Thought in Argentina, 1837–1940
Edited and with an Introduction by Natalio R. Botana and Ezequiel Gallo

Liberal Thought in Argentina, 1837–1940 is the first compilation of primary sources that document the history and tradition of liberal thought in Argentina throughout the nineteenth and first half of the twentieth century. With only two exceptions, none of the works have ever been translated into English until now.
In the Aftermath of Catastrophe

During the academic years 2014/15 and 2015/16, the Shelby Cullom Davis Center for Historical Studies will take as its theme "In the aftermath of catastrophe." What happens in the wake of cataclysmic experiences: war, civil war, genocide, imperial collapse, natural disaster? The aim in part is to understand processes of reconstruction but not only that. How was the experience of catastrophe remembered and memorialized; how was trauma conceived and dealt with; how was the post-catastrophic present understood in relation to the pre-disaster past? As always, we hope to address these questions from a wide variety of periods and places, from prehistory to the present and from all parts of the world.

The Center will offer a limited number of research fellowships for one or two semesters, running from September to January and from February to June. Early career scholars must have their doctoral degrees in hand at the time of the application. Fellows are expected to live in Princeton in order to take an active part in the intellectual interchange with other members of the Seminar. Funds are limited, and candidates are, therefore, strongly urged to apply to other grant-giving institutions as well as the Center if they wish to come for a full year.

To apply please link to: http://jobs.princeton.edu, requisition #1300300. The deadline for receipt of applications and letters of recommendation for fellowships for 2014/2015 is December 1, 2013. Please note that we will not accept faxed applications. Applicants must apply online and submit a CV, cover letter, research proposal, abstract of proposal, and contact information for three references. For further information about the Davis Center, please go to http://www.princeton.edu/dav. Princeton University is an equal opportunity employer and complies with applicable EEO and affirmative action regulations.
