8th ANNUAL MISSES UNIVERSITY

An Alternative to Neo-Classical Economics

Students interested in an alternative to neo-classical economics are invited to attend the 8th annual "Ludwig von Mises University." This unique program, sponsored by the Ludwig von Mises Institute and held in Claremont, California, in the foothills of the San Gabriel Mountains, runs from July 17–24, 1993.

Undergraduates and graduate students follow a schedule of their own design, suited to their academic interests. And there is no charge. Accepted students receive free tuition, room, and board: a scholarship worth $1,000.

The weather is balmy, the library has 1.5 million volumes, and the accomplished faculty—headed by economist and historian Murray N. Rothbard—will make you think you’re in Old Vienna. For more information:

The Ludwig von Mises Institute
Auburn University, Alabama 36849
Phone: 205-844-2500. Fax: 205-844-2583

FOR SALE

Large professional academic economics library consisting of about 7000 books, containing much material in the History of Economic Thought, American Economic History, Labor Economics and Demographic Economics. Library also contains:

- the 1934 Encyclopaedia of the Social Sciences
- the 1965 International Encyclopedia of the Social Sciences (including the n+1th biographical volume)
- The International Encyclopedia of Demography
- the Encyclopedia of Philosophy
- a full set of the Yale Review (Old Series, 1892-1910)
- the Goldsmith’s Library Catalog, etc. etc.

A complete listing is available in WP5.1 on a 3.5" diskette. Interested parties should write:

Professor M. Perlman
Department of Economics
University of Pittsburgh
Pittsburgh, PA 15260 USA