Contents

Articles

Misusing History: A Minisymposium 177
E. ROY WEINTRAUB

Misunderstanding the History of the Business Cycle 179
ROGER E. BACKHOUSE

Scholarship in Deficit:
Buchanan and Wagner on John Maynard Keynes 185
BRADLEY W. BATEMAN

Robbins, Textbooks, and the Extreme Value Neutrality View 191
JOHN B. DAVIS

“Chicago Smith” versus “Kirkaldy Smith” 197
JERRY EVENSKY

Same View, Many Lenses 205
EVELYN L. FORGET

Playing Fast and Loose with the Facts about the Writings of Malthus and the Classical School 211
LAURENCE S. MOSS

Freeing Smith from the “Free Market”:
On the Misperception of Adam Smith on the Economic Role of Government 219
WARREN J. SAMUELS AND STEVEN G. MEDEMA
Simplifying Herbert Simon 227
ESTHER-MIRJAM SENT

Carl Menger’s “Money as Measure of Value”: An Introduction 233
GILLES CAMPAGNOLO

Carl Menger’s “Money as Measure of Value” 245
TRANSLATED BY GILLES CAMPAGNOLO

Isaac de Pinto (1717–1787): An Enlightened Economist and Financier 263
José Luís Cardoso and António de Vasconcelos Nogueira

Edgeworth on Complementarity, or Edgeworth, Auspitz-Lieben, and Pareto De-Homogenized 293
CHRISTIAN E. WEBER

THOMAS E. UEBEL

The Laws of the Market versus the Laws of God: Scholastic Doctrine and the Early California Economy 343
MARIE CHRISTINE DUGGAN

Two Unpublished Letters of Malthus, with Notes on the Connections between Malthus and William Smith, MP 371
HITOSHI HASHIMOTO AND JOHN PULLEN

Book Reviews
McCann Jr., ed., The Elgar Dictionary of Economic Quotations 381
DAVID COLANDER

SAMUEL HOLLANDER

Leeson, ed., Keynes, Chicago, and Friedman 386
SUSAN HOWSON

Steindl, Understanding Economic Recovery in the 1930s 391
THOMAS MAYER
Raffaelli, Marshall’s Evolutionary Economics 393

Laurence S. Moss

Grimmer-Solem, The Rise of Historical Economics and Social Reform in Germany, 1864–1894 395

Heath Pearson