Index

academic fields, 114–15 Activity Analysis conference, 237 Adelman, Irma, 234–36, 243–46 administrative history, 100 Africa, sub-Saharan, 29–30, 32–34, 103–4, 283 African Survey (Hailey), 102, 104 Agency for International Development, 218 agriculture
in Asia, 289
and diminishing returns, 66 and economics, 289 European Economic Community policies, 98 gender roles in, 313–14 Govind on, 66–67
and Indian poverty, 65
and land reform, 289–92
in LDCs, 296
and population, 296
productivity, 290–91
Schumacher’s interest in, 251–52 Akerlof, George, 304, 310, 318 analytic narratives, 305 appropriate technology movement, 261–62. See also Intermediate Technology Development Group Argentina and CEPAL recommendations, 157–58 debt crisis, 280–81 OECD studies of, 275–76
Prebisch’s work in, 154, 283 Arrow, Kenneth, 220, 222
asymmetric information, 10, 30, 64, 304
AT Reader (Carr), 262
Austrian economics, 270, 274–75, 296. See also Hayek, Friedrich backwardness, economic causes of, 124 in Italy, 125–26

History of Political Economy 50 (annual suppl.) DOI 10.1215/00182702-7347178 Copyright 2018 by Duke University Press backwardness, economic (continued)
in Latin America, 154–55 Rosenstein-Rodan’s work on, 123
  in Spain, 148
  and structural heterogeneity, 154–55 Baer, Werner, 218 balanced growth theory, 1–2 balanced planning, 185
Balfour, Eve, 251–52, 263
Bangladesh, 273, 294n18, 296, 316–17
Baran, Paul, 64, 111, 127, 135 Barber, William, 179 basic needs (BN), 25, 31. See also human development approach Bauer, Peter
  about, 98–99, 274
  and Austrian economics, 275
  on Baran, 111
  Cambridge education of, 105 career of, 105, 110–11
  on development, 286
  The Economics of Underdeveloped Countries, 108–10 on foreign aid, 275 imperfect competition, work on, 106
  at LSE, 275
  polemical essays of, 111 on regulation, 275, 283 reputation of, 111–12 rubber industry, interest in, 105–8, 274–75 and Thatcher, 110–11
  and universal applicability doctrine, 275 West African trade research, 108 Baumol, William, 173–74 behavioral development economics
  about, 306–8, 319
  advantages of, 307, 319 choice in, 308
  cinnamon roll example, 310 constraints and cognition, 316–17 enculturated decision making, 308–9, 312–15 growth of, 307–8, 318 historical contexts, 303–6 influences on, 318 institutions, theories of, 313–15, 318 language, emphasis on, 317 mental models, 312–13, 316
  methodology, 307
  nudge theory, 310
  perception, approach to, 309 poverty, 310–11
  quasi-rational decision making, 308–10 and rules-of-thumb, 315–16 behavioral economics, 281–82, 308, 318 Bellah, Robert, 134
Bentham, Jeremy, 19
Berkeley, George, 288–89, 293, 298
Berry, Robert A., 218
Bértola, Luis, 165
Betancourt, Rómulo, 157
Bhagwati, Jagdish, 122, 269, 300
Bismarck, Otto von, 80
Black, Eugene, 254
Bladen, Vincent, 179–80
Bos, Hendricus, 242–43
Brandt, Willy, 278–79
Brandt Report, 278–79
Brazil, 158, 166, 310–11
Bretton Woods conference, 85, 89, 117
“Buddhist Economics” (Schumacher), 251, 253–54 Burma, 252–53, 263

Caldentey, Esteban Pérez, 165
Canada, 262
Capital Investment in Africa (Frankel), 102, 104

capitalism
in dependency theory, 159–60
in Latin America, 165
in Lewis’ modified classical model, 177–78 rivalry in, 88
Cardoso, Fernando Henrique, 156–60 Carey, Henry Charles on Canada, 51
on communities, growth of, 48–49 development theories of, 47–51 on education, 50–51
factor returns theory, as against, 47–48 on government, roles of, 50 on Mexico, 51
The Past, the Present, and the Future, 47 population concentration theory, 50–51 as protectionist, 47, 49–50 settlement patterns theory, 48–50 Walker Tariff Act of 1846, as against, 47, 51
Carey, Mathew, 45, 47
Carr, Marilyn, 262
Carr-Saunders, Alexander, 102–3
Carson, Carol, 217 Center for International Studies at MIT, 135

CEPAL
about, 152, 154
and Brazil, 158
Cardoso at, 156–60
Chenery at, 220
and Chile, 157–58
data collection activities, 159 and dependency theory, 159–60 doctrines of, 154 effectiveness of, 157–58, 164

Fajnzylber at, 161–63
funding of, 155
Furtado at, 155
heterodoxy recommendations, 167 inequality, focus on, 163–67 and inward-directed development, 157, 161, 163 and IPLES, 156
and LAFTA, 157
neostructuralism of, 161–63 powers of, 155
Prebisch at, 154, 157
and structural heterogeneity, 154–55
structuralism of, Latin American dependency theory, 159–60 deteriorating trade terms theory, 154, 156, 158–59, 167 diffusion and teaching of, 155–60
and economic nationalism, 152–53
overview of, 154–55
structural unemployment, emphasis on, 154 tax evasion data, 167 and University of Chile, 156 and Venezuela, 157
Chamberlain, Joseph, 97
Changing Production Patterns with Social Equity (Fajnzylber), 162 Chatham House, 97, 102, 120–21, 123, 250
Chenery, Hollis and activity analysis, 220 career, 219
development definition, 222 education, 219
empirical studies, 233–34, 246 and factor analysis, Adelman and Morris’s, 243–44 Chenery, Hollis (continued)
influences, 220
input-output framework, use of, 219–21 intercountry analysis, 222–23
“The Interdependence of Investment Decisions;” 220–21
Interindustry Economics, 219–20 Italy, work on, 125, 219 on Kuznets, 222–23 versus Kuznets, 226–27 and Leontief, 219
and McNamara, 224–25, 227 models, use of, 235, 246 patterns, research into, 222–24, 234–35 planning work, 219–21
programming models, 221
quantifying development, 221–22 Structural Change and Development Policy, 222 on structural changes during development, 222–23 Studies in Development Planning, 221 thought of, overview, 219, 226
and Tinbergen, 220, 234–35, 243 at the World Bank, 224–25 and World Development Indicators, 225
Chile, 29, 157–58, 166
China. See also Sun Yat-sen and Africa, sub-Saharan, 33 American interests in, 84 and deteriorating trade terms theory, 158 foreign investment, attitudes towards, 82 Kang Youwei, 84–86, 90
Kuznets in, 213
and Latin America, 33 market, introduction of the, 293–94 opium wars, 80–81
statecraft movement, 81 Sun’s ideas, contemporary use of, 90–91 choice, 308
Cimoli, Mario, 165 classical economics British, 179
criticisms of, 173
as development economics, 116 dualism, absence of, 179 Lewis and, 173–75, 179, 181–82, 185, 187 climate change, 34–35, 74 cognitive biases, 282–83 colonialism. See also imperialism development thinking, transition to, 119 and drain theory, 64
in India, 61–64
institutions under, 304 in Malaya, 99, 102, 105, 287 manufacturing under, 66–67 underdevelopment, as causing, 304–5 comedic metahistory, 140–44, 148–49 comparative advantage, 47
Confederation on Research in National Income (CRIW), 217 Confucian model, the, 293 counterculture, 1970s, 261–62
Cowles Commission, the, 244–45
Coxe, Tench, 43–46
The Crisis of the Modern World (Guénon), 252 Datta, Saugato, 316
DDT, 259
democratization, 32 dependence school, 27–28 Dependency and Development (Cardoso and Faletto), 160 dependency theory, 74, 159–60
deteriorating trade terms theory, 154, 156, 158–59, 167 developing countries, postwar dependencia arguments in, 27–28 developed countries, influence from, 21, 29 and global contexts, 20–21 Polyani’s framework, applicability of, 20–21 Polyani swings in, 22, 24 postwar conditions of, 24, 26–28 strategies, 22–29 development advising, 8 Development and Underdevelopment (Furtado), 159 development economics in academe, 4, 126–27 and American political projection, 116 as applied discipline, 4 Bauer on, 108–11
versus conventional economics, 2 definitions of, 1–3, 222, 288 experimental studies, 307 fragmentation in, 281–84 “fundamental question” of, 270–71, 273 versus growth economics, 4–5 Hicks’s characterization of, 272 Hirschman on, 2–3, 59, 273 modeling, 175–78
as multidimensional, 244 neo-institutionalist, 74 noneconomic issues in, 244 non-Western influences, lack of, 72–74 and policy, 300
postwar overview, 4, 7
quantification in, 211
Ranade’s theories of, 66–67 structuralist versus neoclassical, 2 subdisciplinarity debate, 270–71, 273 and third world, rise of, 4 development economics, history of 18th century, 288, 298 20th century, late Austrian economics, 274–75
Brandt Report, 278–79
criticisms sparking, 272–73 and debt crises, 280–81
growth accounting, 273–74
and neoclassical growth theory, 273–74 neoconservatism, 277–81
overview of, 269–70
policy change, transition to, 275–77 social cost-benefit analysis, 276–77
structural adjustment loans, 280–81 and subdisciplinarity debate, 270–71, 273 21st century, late, 281–84
1950s, 287–89, 299
1960s, crisis of, 130
1980s, 59–60, 293
academic field, birth of, 126–27 antecedents to, 116–18
balanced-unbalanced debate, 128–29 complementarities in, 129 “development” term, 287
discontinuities in, 129
East Asian miracle, effects on, 293–94
Economic Development Institute, 127–28 economies of scale in, 129 development economics, history of (continued) “fundamental question,” 270–71, 273 goals, redefinition of, 130, 273 Great Britain, 1960s, 98
growth accounting, 273–74
hegemonic states, role in, 118–19 and hegemony, European postwar, 115–16 indivisibilities in, 129 institutional actors, 125–28 interwar period, 118
Italy’s role in, 124–26
Keynes’ general theory, 271 origins, 3–4, 7, 59–60, 98–99 “Problems of Industrialisation of Eastern and South-Eastern Europe,” 121–23 and reconstruction, European, 120–21, 123–24 special case / general theory debate, 271–73 structure emphasis, 1960s, 269 theory and practice, 128 development economics historiography approaches to, overview of, 5–7 archival sources, use of, 6 complicating, value of, 11 current state of, 6–7 events, impact of, 8–9 historical analysis, insights of, 8 and historical fields, other, 8–9 ideology, role of, 9 origins debate, 115
political contexts, importance of, 8–9 postwar, 4, 73
practitioners versus historians in, 9–10 revisionism in, 9 development thinking, changes in
and climate change, 34–35
and colonialism, 119
growth strategies, 24–29 millennium development goals, 33–34
neoliberalism, 28–33
overview of, 21–24, 35–36
Diaz-Alejandro, Carlos, 218 divergence, 74
Douglas, Mary, 309, 313
drain theory, 61–64, 288
Duflo, Esther, 305, 307
Dutt, Romesh Chunder, 64

East Asia. See also China; Japan; Malaya agricultural concerns, 289 Hong Kong, 102, 292
Indonesia, 146, 292, 312
Krugman on, 297
land reform in, 291
liberalization of, 30
and neoclassical developmental model, 293–94, 297 Singapore, 292
supergrowth of, 292–93
Taiwan, 219, 276, 291, 293n14
Thailand, 292
East Asian Miracle, the, 292–94, 297–98
East Asian model, the, 293 Eastern Europe, 98, 116, 118, 120–23
Eckstein, Peter, 245
The Economic Development of Latin America and Its Principal Problems (Prebisch), 154, 290 Economic Growth Center, Yale, 217–18
The Economic Impact on Underdeveloped Societies (Frankel), 105 “economic person” concept, 281–82 economic science, 286, 298
The Economics of Under-developed Countries (Bauer and Yamey), 108–10 Economics of underdevelopment, 97–98
education, 50
Eisenhower, Dwight D., 126, 135, 137 entrepreneurship
in Austrian economics, 274 in CEPAL recommendations, 155
in India, 65, 72
and the Industrial Revolution, 20 Rosenstein-Rodan on, 122 in rubber industry, 275 training, 315
Europe, Eastern, 98, 116, 118, 120–23 European Economic Community, the, 98 events, 8
exchange controls, 100 experimental studies, 307, 313. See also randomized control trials factor analysis, 243–44, 246 factor returns theory, 47–48
Fajnzylber, Fernando, 161–63
Farooki, Masuma, 158
Filippo, Armando di, 164
First Things First (Streeten), 130 Fogel, Robert, 212n2, 292
Ford Foundation, 215, 218, 258n19 Frankel, Herbert
about, 98–99, 104, 111
academic positions, 104–5 autobiography, 105
Capital Investment in Africa, 102, 104
The Economic Impact on Under-developed Societies, 105 and Jewkes, 104
and South Africa, 283
free markets. See markets, free French-Davis, Ricardo, 164
Friedman, Milton, 245, 295
Frisch, Ragnar, 232
Furtado, Celso, 6n4, 155, 158–59, 164n15, 173, 272
Galbraith, John, 127
Gandhi, Mohandas Karamchand
about, 68–69
contributions of, 60
development economics, influence on, 72–73
influence of, 73
methodology of, 69–70
on poverty, 70–71
on the state, 71–72
thought of, economic, 68–72 Gawande, Atul, 316–17
General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT), 156, 157n7, 270, 281 George, Henry, 51–56, 80 Germany and Eastern Europe, 120–21 interwar history, 120 modernization theory in, 147–48 Schumacher in, 250–51
global South, the, 137 Goldsmith, Raymond, 218
Great Britain
African Survey, impact of, 102 and American economic development, 45–46 Austrian economics in, 274 biological husband in, 262
Chatham House, 97, 102, 120–21, 123, 250
Colonial Office, 97–98, 101–3
Commonwealth Relations Office, 101
Great Britain (continued)
   Eastern Europe, interest in, 116, 118, 120–21 and free market principles, 295 and India, 61–64 industrial revolution, the, 20 interwar revivalism, 263
ITDG, support for, 261
Labour Party, 20, 99
London School of Economics, 102–3, 173, 275
national income accounting, 233
neoliberalism, beginning of, 29
postwar period
   agricultural staples, interest in, 103 colonial holdings, 101–3, 119 European economy, attitudes towards, 100–1 hegemonic goals, 116, 118–19 imperial power during, 99–100 social anthropology, 102–3
   Suez Canal Crisis, 99–100 and rubber market, 107 socio-economic systems, history of, 17–20
and South Africa, 103–4
Great Britain, development economics in. See also Bauer, Peter; Frankel, Herbert; Yamey, Basil 1960s, 98–99
and colonial holdings, 102 and hegemonic goals, postwar, 119 origins of, 97–98, 100
proponents of, 98
Great Harmony Age (Kang), 85–86
The Great Transformation (Polyani), 17–19
Greenwald, Bruce, 30
Greif, Avner, 305
Grey, Austin, 89
Gross National Product (GNP), 25, 31, 197, 199, 214, 280
growth accounting, 273–74
growth economics
   and climate change, 34–35
dependencia critique, 27–28 versus development economics, 4–5 human objectives critique, 25–27 neoliberal critique, 28–29
postwar, 24–29
Guénon, René, 252, 263
Gurdjieff, G. I., 252
Hailey, William, 102, 104
Hamermesh, Daniel, 307
Hamilton, Alexander, 42–45, 47
Hansen, Bent, 232
Haq, Mahbub ul, 199, 201n9, 204
Harrod, Roy, 172, 174, 176
Harrod-Domar growth model, 5, 175, 234, 243
Hayek, Friedrich, 174, 274, 277, 283, 296 Heavily Indebted Poor Countries initiative (HIPC), 32–33 Heisenberg, Werner, 253–54
Helleiner, Gerald, 218
Helpman, Elhanan, 30
Hicks, John, 136, 272
Higham, John, 139
Hirschman, Albert
   on balanced growth theory, 1–2 and Columbia, 128, 283 on development economics, 2–3, 59, 273 on Rosenstein-Rodan’s work, 122 Tinbergen, similarities to, 243 history, comedic, 140–44, 148–49 Hobson, J. A., 83, 88
HOPE 2017 conference, 7–10 human development approach (HD)
in Africa, sub-Saharan, 33–34
versus growth economics, 25–27 policy impact of, 32–33 spread of, 30–31
strategies for, 31
UNDP report, 30–31
Human Development Index (HDI)
about, 31, 198–99
audit role, hope for, 208 effectiveness of, 204
versus GDP, 200–1, 207 indicators, as commitment to, 201 indicators, use of, 202 weighting in, 203
human resources, 293
human settlement, patterns of, 48–49 hunger, 259, 279, 296
Hunt, Shane, 218

ILPES, 156
imperialism. See also colonialism British
Colonial Office, 97–98, 101–3
in India, 61–64
in Ireland, 61n2, 63, 287–89
postwar, 99–100
Hobson’s analysis of, 83, 88
Lewis, as against, 186 studies of, 63–64
Sun’s theories of, 83
underdevelopment, as causing, 64
import-controlling regimes, 276 independence, political, 21–22 index numbers, 203–4
India. See also Gandhi, Mohandas Karamchand; Naoroji, Dadabhai; Ranade, Mahadev Govind British rule and drain theory, 61–64
contributions from, potential of, 74 independence, 99
Kuznets in, 213
nationalist movement, 61 political economy of, 64–68 poverty, explanations for agriculture, dependence on, 66
drain theory, 61–64, 66
institutional, 65–66 mechanization, 71
social, 70–71
Schumacher in, 254–56
Stag Hunt experiment findings, 313
Indian National Congress (INC), 61, 64
Indonesia, 146–47, 292, 312
inequality, 33–34, 163–67 input-output analysis, 219–21, 233, 237–38
institutional economics, 68 institutions
as actors, 125–28
under colonialism, 304
epistemological resources, as creating, 313
Lewis on, 186–87
schematizing power of, 313–15, 318
Interindustry Economics (Hollis and Clark), 219–20 Intermediate Technology Development Group (ITDG), 258–62
International Association of Research in Income and Wealth (IARIW), 217
International Bank for Reconstruction and Development (IBRD). See also World Bank, the American thought on, 88–89 creation of, 85, 117
versus IDO, 86
versus Marshall Plan, 124 postwar lending, 123–24 Structural Adjustment Loans, 124
international development. See also Sun Yat-sen International Bank for Reconstruction and Development, 85–86 Latin American thought on, 86n8 and the League of Nations, 80, 84–85, 88
origins of, 76
Western-centrism in, 86–87
The International Development of China (Sun), 79, 82, 85, 87, 89 International Development Organization (IDO), 78, 84–89 International Monetary Fund (IMF) in Africa, sub-Saharan, 29, 32
Baker Plan, 280
Brady Plan, 280
and debt crises, 280–81
HIPC initiative, 32–33
in Latin America, 29, 32
problems faced by, 123
and the UN, 200
World Bank coordination problems, 281 Ireland, 61n2, 63, 287–89 irrational behavior, 282 Italy, 124–26

Jameel Poverty Action Lab (JPAL), 305–6 Japan
Chenery’s work in, 220 industrialization of, 161–62
land reform in, 291
versus Latin America, 162 postwar development, 292
Sun, influence on, 78, 80–81
Jevons, William Stanley, 152, 303
Jewkes, John, 104, 107
Johnson, Gale D., 289
Kahneman, Daniel, 282, 306, 318
Kaldor, Nicholas, 106, 173–74, 176–77, 250
Kalecki, Michal, 123, 126, 250, 272
Kang Youwei, 84–86, 90
Kaplinsky, Raphael, 158
Keynes, John Maynard, 120, 270–71, 283, 295
Keynes, John Neville, 270
King, William, 288
Koopmans, Tjalling, 235–38, 244, 298n23
Krueger, Anne, 273, 283, 292
Krugman, Paul, 30, 297–98
Kubitschek, Juscelino, 158
Kumarappa, J. C., 73, 253, 263 Kuznets, Simon versus Chenery, 226–27
Chenery on, 222–23
at CRIW, 217
on growth, 215–16, 235 and IARIW, 217
influence of, 213
and inverted-U concept, 122, 165 modern economic growth framework (MEG), 216–17 national income, measuring, 212–14, 233 at NBER, 212–13, 215, 218 publications of, 213, 216 research, collective, 217–18 Secular Movements in Production and Prices, 215 and SNA, 214
at SSRC, 215–16
Stone on, 214–15
at War Production Board, 214 work, overview of, 225–26 and Yale’s Economic Growth Center, 217–18 Laffer, Edward, 277–78 land fertility, 48 land reform, 287, 289–92 land tenure, 65, 289
Latin America. See also Argentina; CEPAL; Prebisch, Raúl 1970s crises, 160–61
1980s (lost decade), 30, 160–62 backwardness of, 154–55
Brady Plan, the, 32
Brazil, 158, 166, 310–11
capitalism in, 165
Chile, 29, 157–58, 166
and the Cold War, 153 debt, 161, 280 economic nationalism in, 153 human development in, 33–34 IMF programs in, 29, 32 inequality in, 33–34, 163–67
informal sectors, 155
international development thought in, 86n8
interwar period, 153
versus Japan, 162
MDGs, success of, 33 neoliberalism, impact of, 29–30, 32, 160–61, 164
postwar period, 24, 153
Seers’s interest in, 272 stateness in, 153
structural heterogeneity in, 154–55 tax evasion in, 166–67 technology, impact on, 165 and the Washington Consensus, 163–64 Latin American structuralism about, 152–53, 155 at CEPAL
diffusion and teaching of, 155–60
and economic nationalism, 152–53 neostructuralist shift, 9, 161–63
overview of, 154–55
crisis of, 160–61, 167
dependency theory, 159–60
deteriorating trade terms theory, 154, 156, 158–59, 167 tenets of, 167
LDCs. See less developed countries League of Nations, the, 80, 84–85, 88
Lenin, Vladimir, 88
Leontief, Wassily and Chenery, 219
at Driebergen conference, 237
empirical approach of, 241–42 input-output table of US, 233
and Tinbergen, 237–38
less developed countries (LDCs). See also underdeveloped countries agriculture in, 296
and free trade, 298–99
and globalization, 299 land reform, need for, 290 and money, quantity theory of, 295 nationalism in, 299 policy in, 294
Lewis, Arthur
American Economic Association address, 186–87 as anti-imperialist, 186 on capital accumulation, 178 and Caribbean, the, 283 Chenery, influence on, 220
and classical economics, 173–75, 179, 181–82, 185, 187 on consumer goods, 181, 185–86 development model, 175–78 and distribution theory, 187 on food production, 182 and Harrod-Domar model, 175–76 and history of economics, 175 on institutions, 186–87 interests of, 174
Kaldor, influence on, 176–77 land reform, work on, 290
at LSE, 173
Lewis, Arthur (continued) at Manchester, 173
and Marxism, 180–81, 186 modified classical model, 177–78, 182–83
Myint, influence of, 179 Nurkse, criticisms of, 185–86 on polarization growth theory, 183–84
on productive versus unproductive labor, 178–79
Ricardo, influence of, 182–83 versus Rosenstein-Rodan, 185 on Smith, 178–79 surplus labor concept, 184
on trade, 181–84
tropical countries, interest in,
174–75, 183–84
linear programming, 237 List, Friedrich, 3n3, 66–67, 293 London School of Economics (LSE), 102–3, 173, 275
Lucas, Robert, 287, 297–98
Macmillan, Harold, 100
Macroecomics, 59
Mair, Lucy, 102
Malaya
Bauer’s interest in, 106–7, 275
and colonialism, 99, 102, 105, 287
Frankel’s visit to, 105
Malthus, Thomas Robert, 8, 53, 172, 174, 181, 183
market economic model
flaws in, 30
and human development agendas, 31 reactions to, 31–32, 34 resistance to, 295–96 market economies development economics, impact on, 9
and East Asian Miracle, 293–94, 299 Friendman on, 295
in Great Britain, 295
in LDCs, 296
regulating, 36
markets, free, 19–20, 74, 108, 186, 288, 295–97
Marshall, Alfred, 289
Marshall Plan, the, 124
Marx, Karl, 63
Marxism
Lewis on, 180–81, 186
versus modernization theory, 142–43, 147
Naoroji and, 63, 73
reserve army concept, 180 Rostow, as against, 142–43
Mason, Edward, 127, 219 Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT), 4, 126, 135, 305
McNamara, Robert, 224–25, 227
McRobbie, George, 258
Meade, James, 233
“Measurement without Theory” debate, 235–36
mental models, 312–13, 316
Mexico, 51, 156–57, 166, 276, 279–80
Mill, John Stuart, 3, 280
Millennium Development Goals
(MDGs)
about, 33, 196
in Africa, sub-Saharan, 33
audit role of, 208
effectiveness of, 204–5
goals to indicators ratio, 202
and index numbers, 203–4, 207–8
indicators, use of, 202–3 versus SDGs, 198, 201–3 versus social indicators, 197 as successful, 34
Index 339

Miralles, Carles Sirera, 143, 148
Mises, Ludwig von, 274

models
Adelman’s use of, 234–36, 243–46
Chenery’s use of, 221, 235, 246
Confucian, 293
Cowles Commission’s use of, 245
definitions of, 236
empirical data, need for, 245–46 Harrod-Domar growth, 5, 175, 234, 243
Lewis’s development, 175–78
Lewis’s modified classical, 177–78, 182–83 market economic, 30–32, 34, 295–96 mental, 312–13, 316
neoclassical development, in East Asia, 293–94, 297 Prussian, 293
Solow’s growth, 304
structural, limits of, 306 of technological change, 235 Tinbergen’s use of Dutch, 236
founding work in, 232
macroeconomic, 233
on macro versus micro, 238
Nobel prize for, 232
in stages, 242–43, 246
strategy for, 236
“Use of Models” lecture, 244 of the US economy, 233

Modern Economic Growth framework (MEG), 216–17

modernization theory
American history as blueprint, 141–44 appeal of, 134, 143, 148–49 class conflict in, 142–43 as comedic metahistory, 140–44, 148–49
consumerism in, 143 contemporary views of, 134 criticisms of, 144–45
evidence against, 144–45
in Germany, 147–48
impact of, 9
in Indonesia, 146–47 Marxism, as countering, 142–43, 147
origins of, 133, 138–39
overviews of, 133–34, 141–42 political work of, 134, 143, 148 resilience of, 145–49 in South Korea, 146
in Spain, 148
and Vietnam War, 145 Western experiences, focus on, 74 monetarism, 295–97 money, quantity theory of, 295 monoeconomics, 3
Morris, Cynthia Taft, 243–45
Mullainathan, Sendhil Multidimensional Poverty Indicator (MPI), 31 mutual-benefit claim, 3 Myint, Hla, 173, 175, 184

Naoroji, Dadabhai
about, 61
contributions of, 60
critiques of, 63–64
development economics, influence on, 72–73
drain theory, 61–64
and Marxists, 63, 73
methodology of, 62–63
Narayan, J. P., 254 national income, 205, 207–8, 212–14, 233 nationalism, 120–21, 152–53, 299 Nehru, Jawaharlal, 60 neoclassical economic development asymmetric information, 304
capital accumulation, 304 and East Asia, 293–94, 297, 299 market, emphasis on, 286–87 mathematics, emphasis on, 286–87 weaknesses of, 299–300 neoclassical economics
about, 272
and Austrian economics, 274
Chenery’s use of, 227
decision-making, individual, 303 development, move into, 269–70 duality in, 177 growth models, 186, 246 and international trade theory, 182
Lewis on, 173
limits of, Seers’s identified, 272–73 and Ranade, 68
rational actors, 303
savings ratios in, 176 as special case, 2–3 strengths of, 315
and structuralism, 153n1
neoliberalism
Africa, impact on, 29–30, 32
British, 109–12
in Chile, 29
origins of, 28–29, 160
Reagan’s, 29, 160
Thatcher’s, 29, 160
the Netherlands, 236
new institutional economics (NIE), 304–5 North, Douglas, 312
North-South: A Program for Survival, 278
North-South dialogue meeting, 279
nudge theory, 310, 318
numbers, political economy of, 205–9 Nurske, Ragnar
on balanced growth, 185 Chenery, influence on, 220
classical theory, criticisms of, 184–85 “concealed rural saving” concept, 185
on poverty, 111, 129
Ocampo, José Antonio, 158, 161 oil prices, 28–29, 160, 225, 253, 261, 279–80 Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD), 275–76
Pack, Howard, 218
Panama Papers, 166
Parra, María Angela, 158
Parsons, Talcott, 135, 137–38 perception, 309
Petty, William, 212
Piketty, Thomas, 165–66
Pinochet, Augusto, 29
Pinto, Aníbal, 164
planning, central, 296–297
Plant, Arnold, 104
Point Four Program (Truman), 136, x policy, 300 political decisions, 17–19
Polyani, Karl, 17, 34 Polyani framework, the. See also development thinking,
changes in
about, 17–21, 35
and climate change, 34
and democracy, 35
and the dependencia school, 28 developing countries, applicability to, 20–22, 24, 35 Poor Economics (Banerjee and Duflo), 282–83 Porcile, Gabriel, 165 portable extensions of existing models (PEEMS), 307 Porter, Julia, 258
poverty
  in Brazil, 166, 310–11 and cognitive biases, 282–83 drain theory of, 61–64 Gandhi on, 70–71
in India, 61–66, 70–71
reduction of, 283
Poverty Reduction Strategy Papers (PRSPs), 33 Prebisch, Raúl and Argentina, 283
career of, 154, 156–57
The Economic Development of Latin America and Its Principal Problems, 154, 290 global structuralism of, 156–57 on inequality, 163–64 Towards a Dynamic Policy for Latin America, 163 at UNCTAD, 156–57
preferences, 307
“Problems of Industrialisation of Eastern and South-Eastern Europe” (Rosenstein-Rodan), 7, 98, 121–23
The Process of Economic Growth (Rostow), 135–36
Progress and Poverty (George), 52–53 Project for Quantitative Research in Economic Development (Stanford), 222 Prussian model, the, 293
public goods, 64

Querist (Berkeley), 288–89, 293, 298
Quesnay, François, 212
Raguet, Condy, 42, 47, 56 Ranade, Mahadev Govind
  about, 64–65, 68
  on agriculture, 66–67
  contributions of, 60, 68
  development economics, influence on, 72–73 and Indian political economy, 64–68 and institutional economics, 68 on manufacturing, 66–67
  methodology of, 67–68
  on protectionism, 67
randomized control trials (RCTs), 282–84, 305–6 Ranis, Gus, 218
rational actors, 303
rational choice theory, 305–6, 318 rent, 48, 53–55
Reynolds, Clark, 218
Reynolds, Lloyd, 218
Ricardo, David comparative advantage theory, 47 factor returns theory, 47–48 George, influence on, 53 versus Lewis, 180
Malthus, debate with, 181 Raguet, influence on, 42, 47 on reduced growth, 3 rent theory, 48, 53
on trade, 182
Richards, Audrey, 102–3 rich-country-poor-country debate, 183
The Road to Serfdom (Hayek), 274 Robbins, Lionel, 104, 173–75, 270, 275
Robinson, Joan, 123, 250 Rosenstein-Rodan, Paul balanced planning argument, 185
Chenery, influence on, 220
Rosenstein-Rodan, Paul (continued) development writings of, 121–22 on industry obligations, 129
influence of, 122
loans to Italy, negotiation of, 124 positions held, 121, 123
“Problems of Industrialisation of Eastern and South-Eastern Europe,” 7, 98, 121–23
Smith, criticisms of, 184–85
Rostow, Walt. See also modernization theory American history work as celebratory, 143–44
as comedic metahistory, 140–44, 148–49
and consensus views, 139, 142, 144 as generalizable, 141, 143
“The Making of Modern America,” 138–40, 142 narrative of, 138–39
as post-Progressive, 139
The Stages of Economic Growth, 133, 138, 141–42
The United States in the World Arena, 138, 141 and British history, 283 at Cambridge, 138–39
on class conflict, 142–43 Cold War, influence of, 136–38 as counter-Marxist, 142–43
criticisms of, 135–36
goals of, 135–36
international agenda, 142 Johnson, influence over, 143 legacy of, 133
metanarrative, perceived need for, 138
at MIT, 135
on Point Four Program, Truman’s, 136
The Process of Economic Growth, 135–36
“propensities” concept, 135–36
Schumacher, influence on, 254–55 and structural-functionalism, 135, 137–38 rubber industry, 105–8, 274–75
Samuelson, Paul, 272
Schultz, Theodore, 185, 231, 290 Schumacher, E. F. agriculture, interest in, 251–52
as antimodernist, 253–54 and the appropriate technology movement, 261–62 and Balfour, Eve, 251, 263 Black, criticisms of, 254 and Buddhism, 252 “Buddhist Economics” essay, 251, 253–54
in Burma, 252–53, 263 career overview, 249–51 at Chatham House, 250 crisis, personal, 251–52
criticisms of, 258
death of, 261
detention, wartime (UK), 250 development thinking of, 256–57, 259, 262–63
in Germany, 250–51
Ghandi, influence of, 263 and Heisenberg, 253–54
in India, 254–56
intermediate technology concept, 254–58, 263 and interwar revivalism, British, 263 and ITDG, 258–62
and Kaldor, 250
and Kalechi, 250
Kumarappa, influence of, 253, 263
legacy of, 262
Man the Unknown, influence of, 252 and Narayan, 254
at National Coal Board (UK), 251 and postwar monetary arrangements, 250 and Robinson, 250
Rostow, influence of, 254–55 Small is Beautiful, 251, 250–61, 263 in Surrey, 251–54
Tools for Progress catalog, 258–60 and Traditionalism, 252–53, 263 Schumpeter, Joseph, 3n3, 152, 173–5
Scitovsky, Tibor, 220
Secular Movements in Production and Prices (Kuznets), 215 Seers, Dudley
career, 271–72
on development economics, death of, 272–73 on development versus conventional economics, 2 employment, emphasis on, 25 Latin America, interest in, 272 on numbers, political economy of, 205–9 Samuelson, criticisms of, 272
UN research work, 126
Sen, Amartya, 30–31, 277 service sector, the, 296 Singer, Hans, 111, 176, 183, 197
Small is Beautiful (Schumacher), 251, 260–61, 263 Smith, Adam
on aptitudes, 44
and convergence debate, 184
criticisms of, 184–85
on free markets, 19, 288 Hamilton, influence on, 42, 44 Lewis, influence on, 178–79 on unproductive labor, 184 “vent for surplus” theory, 184 Wealth of Nations, 288
social anthropology, 102–3
social cost-benefit analysis, 276–77, 277 socio-economic systems, 17–19 Soligo, Ronald, 218
Solow, Robert, 5, 176, 231, 305
Solow model of growth, 304
South Africa, 103–4, 283
South Korea, 146, 291
Spain, 148
The Stages of Economic Growth: A Non-Communist Manifesto (Rostow), 133, 138, 141–42.
See also modernization theory Stag Hunt experiment, 313
Staley, Eugene, 89
Stewart, Frances, 261–62
Stigler, George, 8
Stiglitz, Joseph, 30
Stone, Richard, 233
Streeten, Paul, 3, 11, 128, 130, 200
structural adjustment loans, 280–81
Structural Change and Development Policy (Chenery), 222 structuralism, 153n1, 156–57, 160–61, 167. See also Latin American structuralism Suez Canal Crisis, 99–100
Sunkel, Osvaldo, 163, 227n4, 272
Sun Yat-sen
Bretton Woods conference, influence on, 89, 117
China, contemporary influence in, 90–91 Chinese development proposals, 78–80 development economics, influence on, 118
Sun Yat-sen (continued) educational development, interest in, 78–81 on foreign financing, 81–84, 86–87 IBRD, influence on, 89 and imperialism, theories of, 83 influences, 80–81, 85, 90
and international development, history of, 89–91
The International Development of China, 79, 82, 85, 87, 89 International Development Organization proposal, 78, 84–90 Kang, influence of, 85
as nationalist, 80
as optimistic, 86
railway management, 83 scholarly work on, 77, 89 thought, overviews of, 77, 117–18
The Three Principles of the People, 79 versus Western thinkers, 77–78 writings, overview of, 76–77 Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs)
about, 196
audit role of, 208
effectiveness of, 204–5
goals of, 198, 201–2
goals to indicators ratio, 201–2
and growth, 34–35
and index numbers, 203–4, 207–8
indicators, use of, 202 versus MDGs, 198, 201–3 targets of, 202
World Bank’s use of, 205
Swan, Trevor, 173, 176
Thaler, Richard, 20, 309–10 Thatcher, Margaret and Austrian economics, 110–11, 277
Bauer and, 110–11
election of, 277
Hayek, influence of, 277
neoliberalism of, 29, 160 at North-South dialogue meeting, 279 and Reagan, 277, 279 type, definitions of, 236 type, economic, 300 type and practice, links between, 11 third world, the. See less developed countries; underdeveloped countries Tinbergen, Jan
on Adelman, 244
Central Planning, 240 at Central Planning Bureau, 236–37 and Chenery, 220, 234–35, 243
The Design of Development, 220, 238–39, 242–43 on development objectives, 239–40 development programming work, 237
at Driebergen conference, 237
empirical approach of, 240–42
Hansen on, 232
Hirschman, similarities to, 243 inductive approach of, 236, 245–46
and Leontief, 237–38
on linear programming, 240 and models
Dutch, 236
founding work in, 232
macroeconomic, 233
on macro versus micro, 238
Nobel prize for, 232
Taiwan, 219, 276, 291, 293n14
taxes, 61–62
technological change, 235 Tennessee Valley Authority, 116–17
Index 345

in stages, 242–43, 246
strategy for, 236
“Use of Models” lecture, 244
at Netherlands Economic Institute, 237 “planning in stages” approach, 242–43
planning work, 236
poverty, work on, 236–37 Solow, 232
Solow model, predating, 232 at UNRISD, 197, 214
Tokman, Víctor, 164
Tools for Progress catalog, 258–60
total factor productivity (TFP), 297–98
Toward a General Theory of Action (Parsons), 135, 137–38 Towards a Dynamic Policy for Latin America (Prebisch), 163 trade
Krugman on, 30
Lewis on, 181–84
OECD case studies, 275–76
Ricardo on, 182
Traditionalism, 252–53, 263 tropical countries, 3n3, 66–67 Truman, Harry, 7, 115
The Truncated Industrialization of Latin America (Fajnzylber), 161–62 truthiness, 134
Tucker, Josiah, 298–99
Tversky, Amos, 282, 306, 318 unbalanced growth theory, 1–2 underdeveloped countries. See also less developed countries and colonialism, 304–5

data, lack of, 232–33
and GATT, 281
Mill on, 3
monoeconomics in, 3

national income accounting, 233
tropical, 3n3, 66–67
underdevelopment, economics of, 97–98 Union of Socialist Soviet Republics (USSR) development strategy, 299 Eastern Europe, takeover of, 123 fall of, 296
and the Global South, 137 growth in, Krugman’s theory of, 297 industrialization strategy, 117, 270, 276 Keynes’s visit to, 270, 276 postwar planning, 99
United Nations (UN). See also CEPAL; Human Development Index; Millennium Development Goals; Sustainable Development Goals commitments of, 209 development numbers, history of, 195–99 development programs, unification of, 196–97 development research, 126 history of, summary, 289 Human Development Reports, 205–6 and the IMF, 200
and land reform, 290
measures, use of
and accountability, 208–9 and audit regimes, 206, 208
changes in, 201–2
debates over, 200–1 GNP, 197
political economy of, 205–9 poverty indexes, 201 “stretch” in, 202–3
thick versus thin, 199
United Nations (UN) (continued)

Measures for the Economic Development of Under-Developed Countries, 290 national income accounts, 205, 207–8 numbers, agency of, 205–6 ranking countries, importance to, 205 scope, expansion of, 201

System of National Accounts (SNA), 214 and the World Bank, 200

A World That Counts report, 193, 206, 209

United Nations Conferences on Trade and Development (UNCTAD), 156–57, 278

The United Nations Development Programme (UNDP), 30–31, 200

United Nations Economic Commission for Latin America and the Caribbean. See CEPAL decade divisions, use of, 195–96

about, 194

HDI in, 198–201

internal politics in, 199–200

MDGs in, 196–98

numbers in, 199–201, 206 project unification, 196–97

SDGs in, 196, 198

The United States in the World Arena (Rostow), 138, 141

United States of America, the. See also modernization theory; Rostow, Walt anti-Communism in, 126, 290 appropriate technology movement in, 262

China, interests in, 84

Cold War policies, 136–38

Department of Agriculture (USDA), 289 economic development, pre-20th century

Carey’s theories of, 47–52

Coxe’s theories of, 43–46

as distinct, 42

and the frontier, 42, 55

George’s theories of, 51–55

as goal, common, 55–56

and Great Britain, 45–46

Hamilton’s theories of, 42–46 income inequality, 52 ingenuity, role of, 46, 54, 56

internal markets, creation of, 45

postbellum era, 52

Raguet’s theories of, 42, 47, 56 and Westward expansion, 46 and Yankee ingenuity, 41, 44, 56

Eisenhower administration, 126, 135, 137

frontier, the, 42, 55

history of, 139, 142, 144

and IBRD, 88–89, 124

ideas, importation of, 42

interwar period, 118

macroeconomic models of, 233

Marshall Plan, 124

National Bureau of Economic Research, 212–13

national income accounting, 212, 233

neoliberalism, beginning of, 29

political projection, 116 postwar ambitions, 99, 116, 118

Reagan era, 277–78, 280

Stag Hunt experiment findings, 313

Tennessee Valley Authority, 116–17

Venezuela, 157
Wallerstein, Immanuel, 145, 160
Ward, Michael, 197
Washington Consensus, the, 163–64
White, Hayden, 140, 149
Wilbur, C. Martin, 84
World Bank. See also International Bank for Reconstruction and Development basic needs strategy, 25 Chenery at, 224–25
creation of, 117
development economics, influence on, 126
on East Asian miracle, 294 Economic Development Institute, 127–28
goals of, 30
HIPC initiative, 32–33
IMF coordination problems, 281 influence of, 21
and the market model, 31 and oil price crisis, 280
structural adjustment loans, 280
and the UN, 200
World Development Indicators, 225 World Development Fund proposal, 279
A World That Counts report (UN), 193, 206, 209 World War I and market regulation, 20
Yale University, 217–18
Yamey, Basil, 98–99, 108–11
Yankee ingenuity, 41, 44, 56