Contents

Introduction
Writing the History of Development Economics  1
MICHELE ALACEVICH AND MAURO BOIANOVSKY

Keynote Address to the 2017 HOPE Conference
Changing Approaches to Development since 1950:
Drawing on Polanyi  17
FRANCES STEWART

The Prehistory of Development Economics
Yankee Ingenuity in Theories of American Economic Development, from the Founding to the Closing of the Frontier  41
STEPHEN MEARDON

Aspects of Indian Economic Thought and the Birth and Poverty of Development Economics  59
AMITAVA KRISHNA DUTT

Sun Yat-sen as a Pioneer of International Development  76
ERIC HELLEINER

The Rise of Development Economics
The Colonial Office and British Development Economics, 1940–60  97
KEITH TRIBE
Contents

The Birth of Development Economics: Theories and Institutions 114
Michele Alacevich

Modernization Theory Never Dies 133
Nils Gilman

CEPAL, Economic Development, and Inequality 152
Joseph L. Love

When the History of Ideas Meets Theory: Arthur Lewis and the Classical Economists on Development 172
Mauro Boianovsky

The Role of Economic Experts

Measuring Development—from the UN’s Perspective 193
Mary S. Morgan and Maria Bach

Quantifying Economic Development: Kuznets, Chenery, and the Quantitative Approach to Development Economics 211
Moshe Syrquin

Models, Measurement, and “Universal Patterns”: Jan Tinbergen and Development Planning without Theory 231
Marcel Boumans and Neil de Marchi

E. F. Schumacher and Intermediate Technology 249
Robert Leonard

Development Economics in Turbulent Times: Crisis, Reassessment, and New Perspectives

The Counterrevolution in Development Economics 269
John Toye

From Anxiety to Nonchalance: “Neoclassical Economic Development” from 1950 to 2000 286
Salim Rashid

The Making of Behavioral Development Economics 303
Allison Demeritt and Karla Hoff

Contributors 323

Index 327