Contents

Economic Knowledge in Socialism, 1945–89:
Editors’ Introduction 1
TILL DÜPPE AND IVAN BOLDYREV

Part I: Discourses

“This From Each according to Their Ability, to Each according to Their Need”: Calorie Money and Technical Norms in Mid-Twentieth-Century Hungary 7
MARTHA LAMPLAND

By Force of Power: On the Relationship between Social Science Knowledge and Political Power in Economics in Communist Hungary 30
GYÖRGY PÉTERI

The Economics of Everyday Life in “New” Socialism: Czechoslovak Public Economics and Economic Reform in the Prague Spring Era 52
VÍTÉZSLAV SOMMER

Part II: Doctrines

“Commodity Sui Generis”: The Discourses of Soviet Political Economy of Socialism 75
OLEG ANANYIN AND DENIS MELNIK
Contents

“The Honest Marxist”: Yakov Kronrod and the Politics of Cold War Economics in the Post-Stalin USSR 100
YAKOV FEYGIN

Administrative Monsters: Yurii Yaremenko’s Critique of the Late Soviet State 127
ADAM E. LEEDS

Part III: Techniques

The Growth and Marcescence of the “System for Optimal Functioning of the Economy” (SOFE) 155
RICHARD E. ERICSON

From Pattern Recognition to Economic Disequilibrium: Emmanuil Braverman’s Theory of Control of the Soviet Economy 180
OLESSIA KIRTCHIK

Systems Analysis as Infrastructural Knowledge: Scientific Expertise and Dissensus under State Socialism 204
EGLĖ RINDZEVIČIŪTĖ

Part IV: The International

CHRIS MILLER

The Struggle over Structural Adjustment: Socialist Revolution versus Capitalist Counterrevolution in Yugoslavia and the World 253
JOHANNA BOCKMAN

Shestidesyatniki Economics, the Idea of Convergence, and Perestroika 277
JOACHIM ZWEYNERT

Contributors 300

Index 303