The
South Atlantic
Quarterly

SAQ

The South Atlantic Quarterly provides bold analyses of the current intellectual scene, both nationally and worldwide. Published exclusively in special issues, this vanguard journal features some of the most prominent contemporary writers and scholars and tackles urgent political, cultural, and social questions.

Each issue of SAQ also features a second thematic section composed of short essays that engage a topic of contemporary political importance. The title of this section, "Against the Day," is meant to highlight both the modes of activism and the specific occasion that the essays address.
