Common Knowledge is devoted to what its editors have termed “civilian scholarship.” Its mission is to open lines of communication between the academy and the community of thoughtful people outside its walls. Challenging the ways we think about theory and its relevance to humanity, the journal’s “variety of material and opinions gives it a pleasing heterogeneity” (Times Literary Supplement).

Named after the Jewish concept of mending and transforming a fragmented world, Tikkun offers analysis and commentary that strive to bridge the cultural divide between religious and secular progressives. The magazine provides rigorous and unconventional critiques of politics, spirituality, social theory, and culture. Tikkun is recognized for its coverage of the Israel/Palestine conflict, social justice issues, and the environment.

Named 2015 “Magazine of the Year: Overall Excellence in Religion Coverage” by the Religion Newswriters Association.
