Manuscripts  Complete submission guidelines for articles and special sections are available at www.dukeupress.edu/jhppl.

Books for review  Send to Rick Mayes, Department of Political Science, University of Richmond, 202-M Weinstein Hall, Richmond, VA 23173; bmayes@richmond.edu. Potential reviewers should contact the book review editor before submitting manuscripts.

Special Sections  The Politics and Policy of Health Reform: This section provides useful information for practitioners, stakeholders, and academics involved in national- and state-level health reform legislation, regulation, implementation, and policy evaluation in the United States. Beneath the Surface: This section analyzes, unpacks, and challenges empirical claims, theoretical assumptions, taken-for-granted terms and concepts in health policy debates and literature to promote a better understanding of health policy realities.

Social Media  Our social media platforms engage the JHPPL community in ongoing conversation about health politics, policy, and law, continuing discussions begun in the journal and enabling real-time immersion in current issues and debates. For further information, contact JHPPL’s social media editor, Harold A. Pollack, at haroldp@uchicago.edu.
