The Journal of Health Politics, Policy and Law seeks papers from scholars, policymakers and practitioners whose interests bear broadly on health. It welcomes concise, lively articles from any disciplinary perspective and from anywhere in the world.

Manuscripts should be submitted in triplicate to T. R. Marmor, Editor, Journal of Health Politics, Policy and Law, Box 15A, Yale Station, New Haven, Connecticut 06520. Articles should be no more than 25–30 typewritten, double-spaced pages with footnotes referenced in the text and listed at the back of the article. Footnotes and bibliographical citations should follow Kate L. Turabian, A Manual for Writers, University of Chicago Press. Since manuscripts are sent anonymously for editorial evaluation, author name and affiliation should appear on a separate title page only.

Books for Review should be sent to the attention of Deborah Stone, Department of Political Science, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, 77 Massachusetts Avenue, Cambridge, Massachusetts 02139. Authors interested in reviewing should correspond with the Book Review Editor before submitting manuscripts.

Requests for permission to use copyrighted material should be addressed to Permissions, Journal of Health Politics, Policy and Law, Department of Health Administration, P.O. Box 3018, Duke University, Durham, NC 27710.

Subscription prices: Libraries and institutions, $48.00; individuals, for personal use, $32.00; students enrolled in accredited institutions, $16.00. (For postage outside U.S., please add $6.) Single back issues, $12.00. For subscriptions and back issues, write Journal of Health Politics, Policy and Law, Dept. of Health Administration, Post Office Box 3018, Durham, NC 27710.

The Journal was founded by Duke University and the Committee on Health Politics in 1975 and is still co-sponsored by both. In 1982 the Journal will be affiliated with the American Health Planning Association. From time to time the Journal will enter into affiliations with other professional organizations.
