Forthcoming

Versions of the Natural from Antiquity to Early Modernity

Special Issue Editors
Sarah Kay and Nicolette Zeeman

Defining Nature in Medieval Cosmological Literature: The Founding Principle of Contradiction in the Cosmographia of Bernardus Silvestris, the Anonymous Placides et Timéo, and the Image du monde of Gossuin of Metz
Alice Lamy

Æthelwulf’s De abbatibus and the Anglo-Saxon Ecological Imagination
John T. R. Terry

Figures in the Landscape: Encounters and Entanglements in the Medieval Wilderness
Miranda Griffin

“The Animal Outside”: Animal Ingenuity and Human Prudence in French Renaissance Political Thought
Raphaële Garrod

The Monstrous Birth of Alexander the Great: Thomas of Kent’s Roman de toute chevalerie and Twelfth-Century Natural Science
Mary Franklin-Brown

Nature as Norm in Medieval Medical Discussions of Maternal Breastfeeding and Wetnursing
Maaike van der Lugt

Recourse to the Devil: The Regurgitated Knife and the Boundaries of Nature in Early Modern Medicine
Laura Sumrall

Scaling Nature
Kellie Robertson

Cover: Figure of Peace, Grotta di Buontalenti, Boboli Gardens, Florence