READING LOLITA IN TEHRAN
A Memoir in Books
by Azar Nafisi

Random House • Trade Paperback • 0-8129-7106-X • 384 pp. • $13.95/$21.00 Can.
Winner, 2004 Book Sense Book of the Year Award for Non-Fiction

A memoir about teaching Western literature to seven young women in Iran, “this book transcends categorization of memoir, literary criticism or social history, though it is superb in all three.”—Publishers Weekly (starred review)

“Remarkable...an eloquent brief on the transformative power of fiction.”—The New York Times

JOURNEY FROM THE LAND OF NO
A Girlhood Caught in Revolutionary Iran
by Roya Hakakian

Crown • Hardcover • 1-4000-4611-4 • 256 pp. • $23.00/$33.00 Can.

This is an elegantly written memoir of a young Iranian-American poet and journalist about growing up in Iran during the revolution.

“Journey From the Land of No is an immensely moving, extraordinarily eloquent, and passionate memoir. Its author begins what one may prophesy as a major literary career.”—Harold Bloom

THE SWALLOWS OF KABUL
A Novel
by Yasmina Khadra

Nan A. Talese • Hardcover • 0-385-51001-2 • 208 pp. • $18.95/$25.95 Can.

This harrowing novel takes readers into the lives of two Afghanistan couples under Taliban rule, and illustrates the effects of repression on Kabul women and the portrayal of a society enslaved by anger.

“I am so grateful that the The Swallows of Kabul has been written, and written with such relentless poetry and passion. The reality of life under a rule such as the Taliban’s makes us despair not only of the land that could tolerate such horror, but also of the world that for so long kept silent about it.”—Azar Nafisi, author of Reading Lolita in Tehran
