Dirt, Undress, and Difference
Critical Perspectives on the Body’s Surface
Edited by Adeline Masquelier

The essays in this absorbing and thought-provoking collection contribute new insights into the neglected topics of bodily treatments and transgressions. In detailed ethnographic studies from around the world, the contributors recast assumptions about filth and nakedness, exploring how various forms of transgression associated with the body’s surface are drawn up into relations of power and inequality. They demonstrate imaginatively how body surfaces are powerfully mobilized in the making and unmaking of moral worlds.

An Enchanted Modern
Gender and Public Piety in Shi‘i Lebanon
LARA DEEB

Based on two years of ethnographic research in the southern suburbs of Beirut, An Enchanted Modern demonstrates that Islam and modernity are not merely compatible, but actually go hand-in-hand. This eloquent ethnographic portrayal of an Islamic community articulates how an alternative modernity, and specifically an enchanted modernity, may be constructed by Shi‘i Muslims who consider themselves simultaneously deeply modern, cosmopolitan, and pious. Lara Deeb examines the ways that individual and collective expressions and understandings of piety have been debated, contested, and reformulated.

“A remarkable book that opens new vistas on Shi‘i Islam and offers the reader a richly textured and insight-filled excursion into a contemporary Shi‘i community. It will become the source on contemporary Shi‘ism in Lebanon.”
