DEPARTMENT STORES AND THE BLACK FREEDOM MOVEMENT
Workers, Consumers, and Civil Rights from the 1930s to the 1980s
Traci Parker
“This is a powerful and largely untold story. Parker masterfully captures the distinct yet intertwined fates of worker and consumer rights.”
—Victoria W. Wolcott, State University of New York at Buffalo
336 pages $27.95 paper

SEMI QUEER
Inside the World of Gay, Trans, and Black Truck Drivers
Anne Balay
“A powerfully compelling ethnography of trans, gay, and black truck drivers and the complex world they inhabit. Balay paints a vivid picture of the everyday lives of working-class queer and black people, highlighting their astute analyses of their own lives. A must-read indeed!”
—Marlon M. Bailey, author of Batch Queens Up in Pumps
232 pages $27.95

WORKING IN HOLLYWOOD
How the Studio System Turned Creativity into Labor
Ronny Regev
“Written with grace and intelligence, this wonderfully engaging book fills an astonishing gap in the history of labor in the Hollywood film industry.”
—Saverio Giovacchini, University of Maryland
288 pages $27.95 paper

THE LATINO MIGRATION EXPERIENCE IN NORTH CAROLINA
REVISED AND EXPANDED SECOND EDITION
New Roots in the Old North State
Hannah Gill
“An informative, fascinating, and indispensable resource for college classrooms, as it enables students to ponder one of the most divisive and least understood political and societal problems in contemporary America. Timely, well thought out, and well researched, the book’s discussions of DACA and Dreamers is invaluable, resonating with and engaging today’s university students.”
—Amanda Boomershine, University of North Carolina Wilmington
228 pages $27.95 paper

For more than thirty years Radical History Review has stood at the point where rigorous historical scholarship and active political engagement converge.

Articles in RHR address issues of gender, race, sexuality, imperialism, and class, stretching the boundaries of historical analysis to explore Western and non-Western histories.

A daring and controversial leader in cultural studies, Social Text focuses on questions of gender, sexuality, race, and the environment, publishing key works by the most influential social and cultural theorists.
