“Quite simply one of the best sources of new ideas in political thought, social motion, and human mentality.”
—Andrew Ross, New York University

The South Atlantic Quarterly presents bold analyses of the current scene—national, cultural, intellectual—worldwide. Recent special issues include “Global Christianity, Global Critique,” “Theory Now,” and “Sovereignty, Indigeneity, and the Law.”

In 2011 the journal will introduce a new section, “Against the Day,” focusing on contemporary political events and modes of resistance.
