SPECIAL ISSUE
Indigenous Feminisms across the World, Part 1

EDITORS’ INTRODUCTION
Indigenous Feminisms across the World, Part 1
Basuli Deb and Ginetta E. B. Candelario • 1

ELIZABETH ALEXANDER CREATIVE WRITING AWARD 2023 WINNER
Mes del viento / Month of Wind
Cece Roth-Eagle • 14

COUNTERPOINT
Structural Trauma
Elena Ruíz • 29

POETRY
Open Your Mouth
Yael Valencia Aldana • 51

MEDIA MATTERS
Honoring the Ancestors and Creator: Indigeneity, Diaspora, and the Politics of Spiritual Relationality in Tannis Nielsen’s A Creation and Rosa Sungjoo Park’s Forgotten Dreams
Ruthann Lee • 52

IN THE TRENCHES
Indigenous Women on the Frontlines of Climate Activism: The Battle for Environmental Justice in the Amazon
Introductory Note by Malcolm McNee, Translation by Elena Langdon
Sônia Bone Guajajara and Célia Xakriabá • 82

COUNTERPOINT
The Palestinian Feminist Movement and the Settler Colonial Ordeal: An Intersectional and Interdependent Framework
Eman Alasah • 110
ESSAY
“A Rape of the Earth”: Sámi Feminists against Mines
Ina Knobloch  •  133

MEDIA MATTERS
The “Grandmother” of Indigenous Filmmaking in New Zealand:
Merata Mita—Film Is Her Patu
Denise Schullenkammer  •  156

VISUAL ESSAY
Tools of the Trade; or, Women’s Works
Gina Athena Ulysse  •  175

ESSAY
Traversing Disciplinary Boundaries, Globalizing Indigeneities:
Visibilizing Assyrians in the Present
Mariam Georgis  •  182

COUNTERPOINT
Rehumanizing Ainu: Performance of Desubjectification
and a Politics of Singularity
Yurika Tamura  •  210

INTERVIEW
What It Takes to Be Counted: An Interview with Ruby Hembrom
Ruby Hembrom and Priti Narayan  •  235

MEMOIR
The Contemporary Origins of Smum’iem Matriarchy in Sinixt Təmxḷʷúlaʔxʷ
Introductory Note by Lori Barkley, Transcription by Sarah Beauchamp
Marilyn James  •  259

IN THE TRENCHES
Safe Motherhood Initiative: Whither African Indigenous Birthing Knowledge?
Esther Oluwashina Ajayi-Lowo  •  263

ARTIST STATEMENT
About the Artwork “Woman Digging Thorns out of Field”
Dana Barqawi  •  295