"A cheeky journal of culture and politics."—New York Times
"The only decent forum for black intellectuals."—Village Voice

While other magazines routinely send journalists around the world, Transition invites the world to write back. Three times a year, its writers fill the magazine’s pages with unusual dispatches, unforgettable memoirs, unorthodox polemics, unlikely conversations, and unsurpassed original fiction. A cosmopolitan journal with an emphasis on Africa and the diaspora, Transition tells complicated stories with elegant prose and beautiful images.

Contributors have included James Baldwin, Langston Hughes, Martin Luther King, Jr., Paul Theroux, Nadine Gordimer, Wole Soyinka, Jamaica Kincaid, Kofi Annan, Carlos Fuentes, Toni Morrison, Spike Lee, and Russell Banks. Essays from Transition have been reprinted in Best American Essays, The Beacon Best, Harpers, and the Uune Reader, while its fiction has been reprinted in Best American Short Stories and has been short-listed for the O’Henry Prize.

Transition is an international review of politics, culture, and ethnicity from Beijing to Bujumbura and is edited at the W.E.B. Du Bois Institute for African and African American Research at Harvard University.
