Lessons from the Past: The History of Academic English

A Special Issue of Modern Language Quarterly
Edited by Leigh Dale, Jennifer McDonnell, and Marshall Brown

Introduction
Leigh Dale and Jennifer McDonell ■ Lessons from the Past? 119

Articles
Andrew Elfenbein ■ The United States of Raveloe 129
Heather Murray ■ Alexander and After: Browning Culture, Natural Method, and National Education, 1889–1914 149
Nancy Glazener ■ The Browning Society in US Public Literary Culture 171
Jennifer McDonell ■ “The Fascination of What’s Difficult”: Browning and MacCallum’s Classroom 193
Leigh Dale ■ T. H. Green and the Modern Novel: English at Oxford 239
Alison Wood ■ Secularity and the Uses of Literature: English at Cambridge, 1890–1920 259
Angela Dunstan ■ The Shelley Society, Literary Lectures, and the Global Circulation of English Literature and Scholarly Practice 279
Herbert F. Tucker ■ A Field of Magpies: Disciplinary Emergence as Modus Vivendi in English Studies 297

Afterword
Catherine Robson ■ On Difficulty 317