Service Learning and Literary Studies in English

Edited by Laurie Grobman and Roberta Rosenberg

“This is a groundbreaking anthology of new research and practice in the engaged humanities. Readers will find a rich intellectual debate on strategies for growing the public humanities and for renewing the contribution of literary studies to higher education’s mission to strengthen democracy and imbue students with a thoughtful commitment to civic engagement.”

—Gregory Jay
University of Wisconsin, Milwaukee

Service learning can help students develop a sense of civic responsibility while addressing pressing community needs. Student collaboration with community partners brings social awareness to the study of literary texts and helps students and teachers engage literature in new ways.
