MLQ 80:4

Literary History after the Nation?
A Special Issue of Modern Language Quarterly
Edited by Peter Kalliney

Introduction
Peter Kalliney ■ Literary History after the Nation? 359

Essays
Susan Stanford Friedman ■ Alternatives to Periodization: Literary History, Modernism, and the “New” Temporalities 379
Katerina Clark ■ The Soviet Project of the 1930s to Found a “World Literature” and British Literary Internationalism 403
Harris Feinsod ■ World Poetry: Commonplaces of an Idea 427
Marijeta Bozovic ■ The Voices of Keti Chukhrov: Radical Poetics after the Soviet Union 453
Eric Hayot ■ Literary History after Literary Dominance 479

Afterword
Simon Gikandi ■ Phantom Time: Literary History at the Edge of the Nation 495