One Year MA Program

CRITICAL THEORY and the ARTS

Inaugural Year, 2012–2013
Robert Hullot-Kentor, chair

The MA program in Critical Theory and the Arts is an intensive yearlong study for students with an edgy involvement in the problems and questions of making art today—in what art has become, and is becoming—and who are no less engaged in wanting to understand what is at stake in the relation of these questions to contemporary social conflict and reality. Focal points of the program in 2012 – 2013 are the Proseminar on the "Convergence of the Arts in the 21st Century," and the Serious Times Lecture Series, which will pose the question, "Why doesn't the United States make social progress?" Graduates of the MA in Critical Theory and the Arts become ongoing members of the Serious Time Lecture Series and the program’s intellectual community. Fourteen students are selected annually by the Committee on Graduate Admissions.
