KRISTA THOMPSON

143 color illustrations, paper, $26.95

“Krista Thompson’s examination of black popular imagery and contemporary art practice is fresh, sophisticated, and greatly needed. I can’t think of another body of work that successfully bridges the aesthetics of hip-hop with recent works of art.”—Richard J. Powell

ALEŠ ERJAVEC, editor
70 illustrations, paper, $27.95

“This is a quite remarkable collection that profiles the art/politics relationship as it was concretely negotiated at key moments throughout the twentieth century. No other study enables us to look so closely to see just what the art/politics relation amounted to—or, more exactly, what was the real relationship between artistic practice and revolutionary social transformation.”—Terry Smith

Thomas Mapfumo and the Music That Made Zimbabwe

BANNING EYRE

62 illustrations, cloth, $34.95

“Banning Eyre has done it again. Zimbabwe’s story is by turns inspiring and heartbreaking. Mapfumo’s life and art, so elegantly told here, lets us both feel and understand it as never before.”

African Rhythms

The Autobiography of Randy Weston

Composed by RANDY WESTON

Arranged by WILLARD JENKINS

Refiguring American Music

51 illustrations, paper, $24.95

“African Rhythms is unlike anything I’ve ever read. Randy Weston—pianist, composer, bandleader, activist, ambassador, visionary, griot—takes the reader on a most spectacular spiritual journey from Brooklyn to Africa, around the world and back again.”
