Approaches to Teaching the Works of Carmen Martín Gaite

Edited by Joan L. Brown

“Carmen Martín Gaite is one of the most important Spanish writers of the twentieth century. The diversity and complexity of her work . . . call for a road map, and this volume definitely provides one.”

—Nuria Cruz-Cámara
University of Tennessee

The career of Spain’s celebrated author Carmen Martín Gaite spanned the Spanish Civil War, Franco’s dictatorship, and the nation’s transition to democracy. She wrote fiction, poetry, drama, screenplays for television and film, and books of literary and cultural analysis. The only person to win Spain’s National Prize for Literature (Premio Nacional de las Letras) twice, Martín Gaite explored and blended a range of genres, from social realism to the fantastic, as she took up issues of gender, class, economics, and aesthetics in a time of political upheaval.

Approaches to Teaching the Works of Italo Calvino

Edited by Franco Ricci

“The volume’s readability and bibliographic and pedagogical detail and each essay’s careful framework render the volume valuable for nonspecialists, for Italianists, and for Calvino specialists, too.”

—Tommasina Gabriele
Wheaton College, Massachusetts

Italo Calvino, whose works reflect the major literary and cultural trends of the second half of the twentieth century, is known for his imagination, humor, and technical virtuosity.

He explores topics such as neorealism, folktale, fantasy, and social and political allegory and experiments with narrative style and structure.

Given the range of his writing, teaching Calvino can seem a daunting task. This volume aims to help instructors develop creative and engaging classroom strategies.
