Concerned with the novel’s role in engaging and shaping the world and with promoting critical discourse on the novel, Novel publishes significant work on fiction and related areas of research and theory. Special issues on the early American novel, eighteenth-century fiction, and postcolonial modernisms carry on Novel’s longstanding interest in the Anglo-American tradition, while an issue dedicated to the contemporary African novel demonstrates the journal’s increasingly global focus.

This volume discusses the available editions of Joseph Andrews, Tom Jones, Shamela, Jonathan Wild, and Amelia; suggests useful critical and contextual works for teaching them; and recommends helpful audiovisual and electronic resources.
