

Pedagogy

Critical Approaches
to Teaching
Literature, Language,
Composition, and Culture

April 2019

Volume 19

Issue 2

Special Issue on Resilience in the Age of Austerity

Guest edited by Chris W. Gallagher, Deborah Minter, and Shari J. Stenberg

Articles

Introduction | Chris W. Gallagher, Deborah Minter, and Shari J. Stenberg 189

Resilience and Resistance in Writing Center Theory and Practice |
Neal Lerner 195

“How About We Try This . . . ?”: Feminist Microresilience and
Institutional Change | Allison D. Carr and Laura R. Micciche 209

Subverting Austerity: Advancing Writing at a Historically Black
University | Collie Fulford 225

#WeareallLIU: The Long Island University Lockout and
Neoliberal Higher Education | Deborah Mutnick 243

Inequitable Austerity: Pedagogies of Resilience and Resistance in Composition | *Katie Kalish, Holly Hassel, Cassandra Phillips,
Jennifer Heinert, and Joanne Baird Giordano* 261

The Adaptive Cycle: Resilience in the History of First-Year
Composition | Clancy Ratliff 283

Conceptualizing English Department Resilience at Two-Year Colleges |
Brett Griffiths and Darin Jensen 301

Learning Resilience from Multilingual Students |
Margaret K. Willard-Traub 323

From the Classroom

You Gotta Laugh: Teaching Critical Thinking via Comedy |
Kristen McDermott 339

Reviews

Historicizing Women's Public Pedagogies: Shared Authority and Cross-Cultural Collaboration. Review of *Learning Legacies:
Archive to Action through Women's Cross-Cultural Teaching*,
by Sarah Ruffing Robbins | Siobhan Senier 353

"Stories People Tell": Myths of American Masculinity. Review of
From Boys to Men: Rhetorics of Emergent American Masculinity,
by Leigh Ann Jones | Christopher M. Parsons 359

Contributors 369