Contents

collectivism in twentieth-century japanese art
Edited by Reiko Tomii and Midori Yoshimoto

Reiko Tomii
Introduction: Collectivism in Twentieth-Century Japanese Art with a Focus on Operational Aspects of Daitai 225

John Szostak
“Art Is Something Born”: The Rise and Fall of the Kokuga Society (1918–28) and the Emergence of the Kokuten Style 269

Maki Kaneko
New Art Collectives in the Service of the War: The Formation of Art Organizations during the Asia-Pacific War 309

Miwako Tezuka
Jikken Kōbō and Takiguchi Shūzō: The New Deal Collectivism of 1950s Japan 351
Ming Tiampo
Gutai Chain: The Collective Spirit of Individualism  383

KuroDalaiJee
Performance Collectives in 1960s Japan: With a Focus on the “Ritual School”  417

Alicia Volk
Authority, Autonomy, and the Early Taishō “Avant-Garde”  451

Midori Yoshimoto
A Woman and Collectives: An Interview with Tabe Mitsuko  475

Contributors  489