Contents

Lili Lai
Guest Editor’s Introduction  543

Gao Bingzhong
How Does Superstition Become Intangible Cultural Heritage in Postsocialist China?  551

Mikkel Bunkenborg
From Metaphors of Empire to Enactments of State:
Popular Religious Movements and Health in Rural North China  573

Ying Xing
Dissemination of Law and Access to Justice at the Village Level:
A Case Study of Barefoot Lawyers in the Villages of China  603

Lili Lai
Everyday Hygiene in Rural Henan  635
Anna Lora-Wainwright
Grassroots Perspectives on Relocation: Threats and Opportunities  661

Zhu Xiaoyang
“Black Land,” “Sick Land,” and “Lost Land”: Dianchi Xiaocun’s Topography and the Problem of a Resistance Approach  691

Li Li
Intangible Cultural Heritage and New Communities of Knowledge Production: An Analysis Based on Village Studies  721

Contributors  741

Erratum  743