Coding Freedom
The Ethics and Aesthetics of Hacking

E. Gabriella Coleman

“Coleman’s book on free and open source software programmers and hackers is desperately needed and will be a significant, landmark contribution to our understanding of the current technologically mediated moment. Coleman mixes case studies with learned treatments of this community, changes in the legal environment, and other relevant dimensions.”

—Thomas M. Malaby, University of Wisconsin–Milwaukee

Addiction by Design
Machine Gambling in Las Vegas

Natasha Dow Schüll

“A stunning portrayal of technology and the inner life. Searing, sobering, compelling: this is important, first-rate, accessible scholarship that should galvanize public conversation.”

—Sherry Turkle, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, author of Alone Together: Why We Expect More from Technology and Less from Each Other

The Ecology of Others
Anthropology and the Question of Nature
Philippe Descola
Translated by Geneviève Godbout

Challenging the division between nature and culture that has been so fundamental to Western thought, Descola proposes a radical new worldview in which beings and objects, human and nonhuman, are understood through the complex relationships that they possess with one another.
