SPEND A WEEK WITH THINKERS WHO SHAPE THE COURSE OF SOCIAL INQUIRY

Join us at The Institute for Critical Social Inquiry on June 14-21, 2015 in NYC.

The New School for Social Research (NSSR) and Founding Director Ann Laura Stoler are pleased to announce the inaugural Summer Session of the ICSI, with seminars led by Talal Asad (CUNY) on Secularism, Simon Critchley (NSSR) on Heidegger, and Patricia J. Williams (Columbia Law) on Racial Formations and Justice Today.

Join other advanced graduate students and junior faculty from around the world for an intensive and intimate week with one of our distinguished faculty in morning Master Classes on the seminar theme and afternoon Workshops dedicated to individual projects. Tuition scholarships and travel grants available. Take advantage of this remarkable opportunity to reframe your style of thinking and develop a new conceptual vocabulary.

THE NEW SCHOOL
“Compellingly written and funny as well as troubling, Pornotopia is certainly one of the architectural highlights of the year.”
—Times Higher Education

“Pornotopia is a genre-busting work that implodes traditional distinctions between topics and fields in an entertaining and enlightening fashion.”
—SUSAN STRYKER, Director, Institute for LGBT Studies, University of Arizona

$29.95 hardcover, 304 pages, 6x9, 27 illus., ISBN 978-1-935408-48-2
Renegade Dreams
Living through Injury in Gangland Chicago
Laurence Ralph

“Renegade Dreams is a tour de force—extremely well written and engaging, and replete with original insights. Once I began reading Ralph’s book I had a difficult time putting it down. His field research is fascinating.”—William Julius Wilson, author of The Truly Disadvantaged

PAPER $20.00

Behold the Black Caiman
A Chronicle of Ayoreo Life
Lucas Bessire

“This is an exceptional book whose greatest strength is Bessire’s careful conceptual and ethnographic decomposition of the terms that have long been used to dehumanize the Ayoreo people in popular and scholarly imaginings. Original and unsettling.”—Gastón Gordillo, author of Rubble
