Opposing Jim Crow
Meredith L. Roman
Before the Nazis came to power in Germany, Soviet officials labeled the United States the most racist country in the world. In contrast, the Soviets represented the USSR itself as a superior society where racism was absent and identified African Americans as valued allies in resisting an imminent imperialist war against the first workers’ state. Opposing Jim Crow examines this period, when the promotion of antiracism by party and trade union officials in Moscow became a priority policy.
