Water: History, Power, Crisis

Editors’ Introduction
David Kinkela, Teresa Meade, and Enrique Ochoa

FEATURES

Sewerage’s Reproduction of Caste: The Politics of Coprology in Ahmedabad, India
Stephanie Tam

Hugh McDonnell

The Aswan Dam and Egyptian Water Control Policy, 1882–1902
Claire Cookson-Hills

“They Cannot Come and Impose on Us”: Indigenous Autonomy and Resource Control through Collective Water Management in Highland Ecuador
Maria Teresa Armijos

REFLECTIONS

Premodern Streams of Thought in Twenty-First-Century Water Management
Ruth A. Morgan and James L. Smith
Bolivia’s Next Water War: Historicizing the Struggles over Access to Water Resources in the Twenty-First Century 130
Nicole Fabricant and Kathryn Hicks

CURATED SPACES

Watershed: Art, Activism, and Community Engagement 147
Nicolas Lampert and Raoul Deal

Stories of Water 159
Nancy Borowick

TEACHING RADICAL HISTORY

Coursing through the Spill: Notes on Teaching Environmental Justice and Making the Academy Responsive to Contemporary Issues 167
Robert A. Gilmer

(RE)VIEWS

The Global Water Crisis: Privatization and Neocolonialism in Film 189
Erik Loomis

REMEMBRANCE

Eric Hobsbawm, 1917–2012 197
Teresa Meade

Notes on Contributors 199