Radical Histories in Digital Culture

Editors' Introduction
Lyell Davies, Conor McGrady, and Elena Razlogova

Framing the Contested History of Digital Culture
Lyell Davies and Elena Razlogova

FEATURES

Is Anonymous a New Form of Luddism? A Comparative Analysis of Industrial Machine Breaking, Computer Hacking, and Related Rhetorical Strategies
Marco Deseriis

Cablegate in the Congo: Mapping the Digital Trail of Wikileaks Cables about the “Forgotten” DRC
Lisa Lynch

419 Digilantes and the Frontier of Radical Justice Online
Dara N. Byrne

Occupy Wall Street Meets Occupy Iraq: On Remembering and Forgetting in a Digital Age
Stefka Hristova

Xenophobia in Action: Ultranationalism, Hate Speech, and the Internet in Japan
Tomomi Yamaguchi
Grassroots Perspectives on Media Justice Organizing: Radical History Review Interviews Betty Yu, Todd Wolfson, and Rusita Avila

Lyell Davies

TEACHING RADICAL HISTORY

The History Textbook, Born Digital
Ellen Noonan

CURATED SPACES

Wafaa Bilal

(RE)VIEWS

A Hidden Life of Digital Devices Revealed
Lyell Davies

A Personal Story and a Collective History of an Uprising
Hossein Khosrowjah

REMEMBRANCE

Gerda Lerner, 1920–2013
Linda Gordon

Notes on Contributors