Historicizing the Politics and Pleasure of Sport

Editors’ Introduction

Peter Alegi and Brenda Elsey

FEATURES

“Nothing but Net Profit”: Property Taxes, Public Dollars, and Corporate Philanthropy at Chicago’s United Center

Sean Dinces

Whose Game Is It Anyway? A People’s History of East German Football

Alan McDougall

Mining for Goals: Football and Social Change on the Zambian Copperbelt, 1940s–1960s

Hikabwca D. Chipande

No League of Their Own: Baseball, Black Women, and the Politics of Representation

Amira Rose Davis

A “Suspiciously Swarthy” Boxer: Luis Firpo and the Ambiguities of the Latin Race

Brian D. Bunk

The Macaquitos Affair: Soccer, Blackness, and Brazil as Argentina’s Racial Other, 1919–1929

Jeffrey Richey
Prizefighting and Civilization in the Mexican Public Sphere in the Nineteenth Century
David C. LaFevor

137

REFLECTIONS

Race, Economics, and the Shifting Politics of Sport Media: The Case of Jimmy the Greek
Thomas P. Oates

159

Super Slaves: Breeding and Controlling the Modern Black American Male through Sports
Steven W. Thrasher

168

CURATED SPACES

Wrestling Ideology
Jennifer Doyle

179

TEACHING RADICAL HISTORY

Teaching Forum on Sport and Politics
Peter Alegi, Amy Bass, Adrian Burgos Jr., Brenda Elsey, and Martha Saavedra

187

(RE)VIEWS

Disturbed Waters: New Currents in the History of Water Sport
Glen Thompson

199

Across the Pitch: Recent Writing on European Football
Daniel Widener

206

Notes on Contributors

214