Militarism and Capitalism: The Work and Wages of Violence
Issue Editors: Simeon Man, A. Naomi Paik, and Melina Pappademos

EDITORS’ INTRODUCTION

Violent Entanglements: Militarism and Capitalism
Simeon Man, A. Naomi Paik, and Melina Pappademos

FEATURE ARTICLES

From Military Supplies to Wartime Commodities:
The Black Market for Sex and Goods during the Korean War, 1950–53
Jeong Min Kim

From Korea to Vietnam:
Local Labor, Multinational Capital, and the Evolution of US Military Logistics, 1950–97
Patrick Chung

The Strange Career of Donald Rumsfeld:
Military Logistics and the Routes from Vietnam to Iraq
Betsy A. Beasley

The Military Grammar of Agrarian Reform in Peru:
Campesinos and Rural Capitalism
Javier Puente
INTERVENTIONS

The US Secret War in Laos: Constructing an Archive from Military Waste
Davorn Sisavath

Indigenous Resistance in an Era of Climate Change Crisis
Kalamaoka'aina Niheu

TEACHING RADICAL HISTORY

The United States and Africa in Oxford, Ohio
Eric Covey

(RE)VIEWS

Archives of Indigenous Self-Activity: Capitalism, Violence, and Indigeneity in the Americas
Jorge Ramirez

Technologies of Empire and the Rejection of Warfare’s Refrains
Jennifer Kelly

CURATED SPACES

Memory and Resistance
Joseph DeLappe